Regal fare for coffee club

Stouffville's renowned Coffee Club was treated regally, Dec. 10, when the Regal Restaurant, Main Street, hosted a Christmas dinner. In attendance were (left to right) Ron Smith, Walter Pipher, Harold Jarvis, Tolar Boake, Shirley Caterer, Rena Alexis, Kathy Baker, Len Buckland, Peter Alexis, Aylmer Hood and Elgin Wagg. While originally recognized as the Forty Cent Coffee Club, inflation has increased the members' value to fifty cents. The 'boys', varying in numbers from eight to fifteen, meet every morning at the Regal for an enjoyable cup of coffee and congenial conversation. —Jim Thomas

At today's fuel prices, CAN you afford to support your drafty old windows?

INTRODUCING

Wintite Interior Magnetic Storms

Proven in home and industry to dramatically reduce heat loss, drafts and condensation.

- Magnetically seals cold air out like your refrigerator door seals cold air in.
- Far less expensive than thermopane.
- Easy removal for cleaning and storage.
- Custom fit to any size window or patio door.
- Pays for itself in a few short years.
