By Evelyn Milsted GORMLEY — Sympathy is extended to Mrs Will Empringham in the death of her husband, also to sisters, Mrs Ethel Hunt and Mrs Herb Nelson of Gormley. Interment was made Sunday afternoon at Heise Hill Cemetery.

Good news from several of the community's hospital patients—Mrs Jos. Heise, released from Scarboro Centenary Hospital; Mrs Beulah Jones, returned from St. John's Convalescent Hospital, Willowdale and Bruce Steckley, recuperating at home following several weeks in North York General Hospital, Willowdale.

Karen Sparks remains a patient in York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill. Her broken ankle is slow to mend.

Sandi Sparks is home for the holidays from Mountain View Bible College, Didsbury, Alberta.

Heise Hill Church will hold its annual candlelight service this Sunday, (Dec. 23) at 7 p.m.

A candlelight Christmas Family Music Night will be held Sunday, Dec. 23 at 7:30 p.m., in the Missionary Church.

Lead role in Anne of Green Gables

Tim Brazier of Stouffville, (third from left), is seen here with some members of his fan club in Charlotte-town, Prince Edward Island where he performed as 'Moody' in Anne of Green Gables. With Tim are (left to right) Sharron Brazier, Stouffville; Fred and Irene Brazier, Markham; Ruth Law, Uxbridge; Nora Wilton, Toronto; Erin Hogg, Montreal and Jim Brazier, Stouffville. Tim returned this week from New York where he's been studying to begin rehearsals with the Canadian Opera Company with whom he will be appearing in 'Candid' and 'Faust', opening Jan. 19, 1985.

Opens dance studio

STOUFFVILLE — It'll be called The DanceCentre and the program's geared to accommodate up to 500 people per week—all ages.

Michelle Green, Second Street, Stouffville, will open her very own dance studio at the corner of Main and Mill Streets. Registration dates are tentatively set for Jan. 8 and 9.

At present, Michelle utilizes Christ Church Hall on Sunset Boulevard where student enrollment numbers 250. With expanded facilities and an expanded program, she hopes to double this number.

Along with ballet, tap and jazz, currently offered children and teens, Michelle plans to introduce dancercise and fitness. A noon program called lunchercise, (for business people), is attracting much interest, Michelle said.

This vivacious mother of two has been a dance instructor in Stouffville four years. Both she and husband Jim are professional dancers. Daughter Stephanie, six, is following in her parents' dance steps. As for son, Joel, only time will tell. He's four.

The DanceCentre will be custom made with cushioned flooring, mirrors—all that's required—interior renovations are now underway.

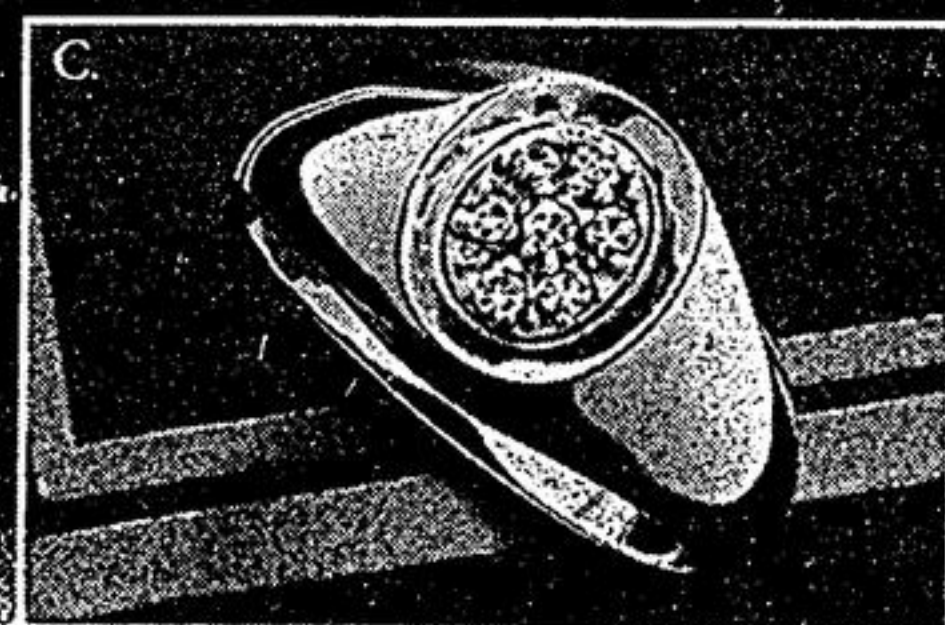

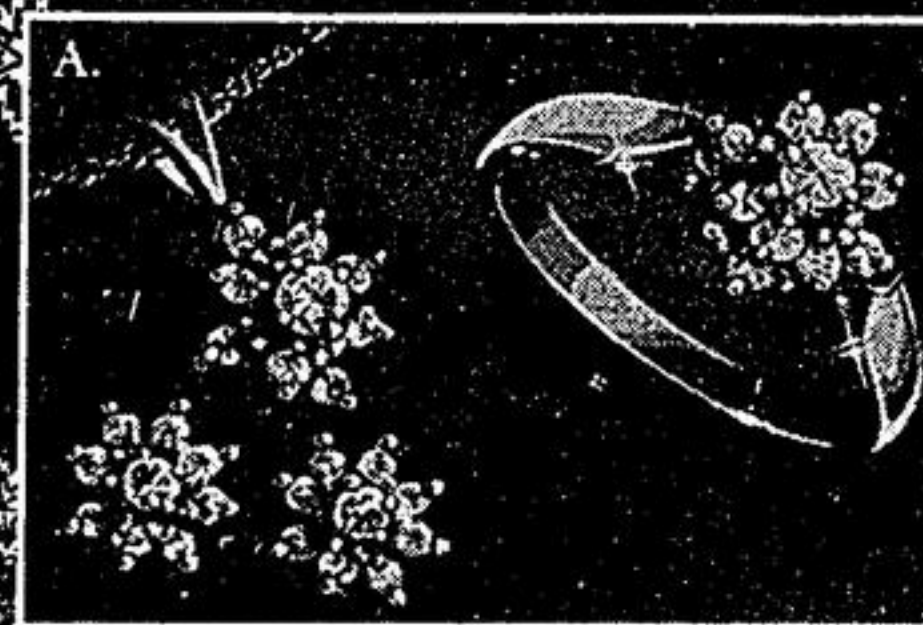

Michelle's excited about her new venture, almost as excited as her students. In about three weeks, she'll let folks see what's been going on behind the scenes. Then she too will dance—for joy!

May our hearts be open to all the children of the generations of man, that the circle of love and peace may grow.
E.B. Michaels
And may His blessings encircle your life and all those dear to you, as we join once more in celebration of His Holy Birth.
