Obituaries 654
SHAW, Percy - In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather who passed away Jan. 5, 1984. Beautiful memories are wonderful things. They last till the longest day. They never wear out, they never get lost. And can never be given away. To some you may be forgotten. To others a part of the past. But to us who loved and lost you. Your memory will always last. Sadly missed by Bob, Lynne, Melanie and Pat.

An inhuman society

To The Editor
One Third World theologian once remarked: "We are entering an inhuman world of inhumanity; inhuman not merely in fact but in principle as well."

How true! I am amazed each day by how inhuman the western society is becoming. Inhumanity has begun to be presented as something noble, surrounded with an aureole of heroism. This has been made more vivid in the present abortion case with Henry Morgentaler, who not only desires to kill innocent babies, but to teach many Canadians in the so-called abortion clinics he hopes to set up, how to kill children in greater numbers. Indeed, if the people of Toronto and in Canada, can tolerate this kind of thing, I would have no reason not to believe they will one day tolerate another Hitler to bury men, women and children alive, as was seen in Germany and elsewhere, a generation ago.

Two hurt in crash

WHITCHURCH — Two persons were injured Dec. 22, in a two-vehicle crash on Hwy. 48 north of the Bloomington Road, Whitchurch-Stouffville. Allan Breedon of Lindsay was the driver of a south-bound 1979 Chevrolet that was in collision with a north-bound 1984 GMC van, driven by Anthony Papania of Uxbridge. Both Breedon and his passenger, Sherry Danilko were hurt, but not seriously. Property damage was estimated at $7,800. Ontario Provincial Police from the Oak Ridges Detachment investigated.

Fewer charges

YORK REGION — York Regional Police have laid fewer charges this year than last in their annual spot-check program against drinking drivers. According to figures released Friday by Staff Sgt. Douglas Wilson, officers stopped a total of 9,677 vehicles. Of these, 602 motorists were given breathalyzer tests. There have been 36 impaired-driving charges (compared to 51 the same time last year) and 47 charges of driving while over the legal limit (compared to 60 last year). Ten have been charged with refusing to take the test. A total of 176 motorists have lost their licenses for 12-hour periods. Twenty-one motorists have been charged with other criminal code violations, while 47 have received liquor related summonses. Police also charged 353 drivers with miscellaneous Highway Traffic Act violations and 300 motorists under the province's seat-belt legislation. The one area in which statistics did go up was traffic accident fatalities. There have been two this year since the program started. During the same period in 1983, no traffic deaths were recorded. York Region's spot check program officially concluded Jan. 1.
