

Cliff and his girls

Garrett, Shirley Caterer, Flo Stacey, Anna Fretz, Jack Easton, Mary Muller, and Fran Eckardt. Aiken's Pharmacy has been purchased by Gord Davie of Uxbridge. Possession date was Jan. 6.

Town Chamber of Commerce

Membership drive

STOUFFVILLE — Membership in the Whitchurch-Stouffville Chamber of Commerce currently stands at 107.

"One hundred and seven and climbing," President Ged Stonehouse told an executive meeting at the Regal Restaurant, Wednesday. The committee, under the chairmanship of Dr. Allan Turner, has set a goal of 150 members in 1985.

President Stonehouse said, in total, there are close to 400 businesses in Whitchurch-Stouffville. He suggested 50 new members should be an attainable figure.

Although it was recommended the membership fee, (now $55), be raised to sixty dollars, businessman Graydon Card was opposed.

"Many of our members operate one-person shops," Graydon said. He felt this should be a consideration.

Businessman Ken Sandiford favored increasing the membership rather than the membership fee.

George Schlubbier, the Town's chief librarian, recommended the Chamber consider an associate membership for organizations and institutions interested in the Town but who can't be categorized as 'business'. He said the library as well as local churches could be classified as associate members.

Jean Barclay of The Wedding Room said service clubs might be interested also.

President Stonehouse said that while the fund is presently 'burned out', a fee increase of five dollars could be supplanted by fifteen new members.

Breathe sigh of relief

By Chris Garbutt

The entire student body at S.D.S.S. can now breathe a sigh of relief. Or can they? Yes, exams are over, but there's still a great deal of tension. It's that feeling of apprehension awaiting results—results of three weeks of intense study. I'm referring, of course, to marks, marks both good and bad.

Isn't it interesting how people react when they do well. They either express disbelief, (because they didn't study), or were just plain lucky. Regardless, acquiring good marks is no small feat. For those who didn't do so well, it was undoubtedly due to small, unfortunate mistakes. If they had it all to do over again, the results would be different.

The end of examinations marks the end of the first term. Just think, we're half way to summer vacation!

So what do we have to look forward to in the second term? Plenty!

First, there are report cards! A Spirit Day is set for to-morrow. Be sure and attend in appropriate dress. A Spirit Week is planned for mid-month.

The really big news is the Variety Show. This event, along with the Walk-a-Thon, will be remembered at the two major events of 1984-85. Preparations began back in September and will soon reach fever pitch.

On the sports front, the Senior Spartans lost to Brebeuf 48-33 on Friday. High scorer for the good guys was Mark Savery with eight points. This was the second leg of a home-and-home exhibition series with the Metro area school. The Spartans lost the opener 44-40. The Spartans realize, as do we, that exhibition contests are merely warm-ups for the regular season.
