"Girl Next Door" A skilled surfer

By Jim Thomas

STOUFFVILLE — Breeding down the ski slopes at Dagmar or wind-surfing across the waters of Georgian Bay, 16-year-old Kelly Simonds, Clarke Street, Stouffville, is a picture of pure delight. She enjoys both sports particularly wind-surfing. It's a challenge, she says.

Kelly is our "Girl Next Door".

One of four in the family of Gary and Charlotte Simonds, Kelly appreciates the close association of her parents and sisters, Julie (Boadway), Janice and Michelle. Family togetherness means a great deal, she says.

Camping holidays hold pleasant memories for Kelly, especially trips to Prince Edward Island, Cape Cod and Myrtle Beach. Some day, she hopes to visit The Bahamas.

Art is a favorite subject at Stouffville High. It may lead to a permanent career. She considers herself as average. "I do well in the subjects I like," she says. Kelly's a student in Grade 11.

Stouffville visitors to the Sales Barn have undoubtedly seen Kelly in the restaurant there. She describes it as "a fun place to work".

Kelly offers no complaints about

THE PONY LOVES CANADA. EVEN WINTER.

Long before the first Pony was sold in this country, a whole fleet of Ponys headed north for winter testing in Kapuskasing, Ontario.

The purpose: to fine-tune the Pony for Canadian driving conditions.

The Ponys slept outdoors that winter. Each day, they went through their paces under the toughest imaginable conditions, battling snow and ice and bone-chilling temperatures. When the winter was over, the engineers with their calculators and clipboards made a few changes.

That's why Michelin all-season, steel-belted radial tires are standard equipment.

The suspension set up has been adjusted for Canadian conditions. An extra coat of factory-installed rustproofing protects every Pony coming to Canada. All of which helps to explain why Ponys are breezing through Maritime storms and Prairie blizzards through hail, wind, snow, sleet and freezing temperatures.

So much performance for such a modest investment.

The new '85 Pony is a proven veteran with a host of standard features. And it still uses regular gasoline. The penny-pinching kind.

All in all, it's not surprising that Pony is the most successful import ever introduced in Canada.

Discover for yourself what all the fuss is about. See the '85 Pony at a Hyundai dealer near you.
