Uxbridge hosts Invitational Competition

Uxbridge — Dance pairs from the host Uxbridge Figure Skating Club collected lots of silverware at the sixth annual Invitational Competition.

Kelly Christie and Cary Dowson won gold medals in the juvenile dance final, followed by another Uxbridge pair, Jill Cassie and Troy McCully, in second place.

In pre-novice dance, club members placed second and third behind the winning Whitby pair of Nicole Page and Darren Edwards. Sandra Cassie and Luke Austin took the silver medal and Savina Findlay and Anand Date won a bronze.

Individual competitors were also successful at the invitational, held Saturday and Sunday at Uxbridge Arena.

Nine-year-old Alicia Willis topped the field in the pre-preliminary ladies final, while Jill Cassie placed third in that event.

Jill's sister Sandra kept the Cassie name in the win column with a silver-medal performance in the preliminary ladies category.

The Uxbridge club registered a sweep in the preliminary men's final, with Chuck Reaman capturing the gold, Luke Austin the silver and Troy McCully the bronze.

Other Uxbridge medal-winners were: Jill Cassie, silver — pre-preliminary 'A'; Alicia Willis, silver — pre-preliminary 'B'; Sandra Cassie, silver — pre-preliminary 'C'; Becky Hemington, bronze — pre-preliminary 'C'; Krista Elliot, bronze — preliminary 'C'; Carrie Somerville, bronze — preliminary 'D'; Savina Findlay, bronze — juvenile 'C' ladies; Dana Forder, bronze — novice 'B'; Tawni Newman, gold — pre-novice 'E' ladies; Jennifer Cook, gold — pre-novice competitive 'B' ladies. The Invitational Competition attracted 400 amateur figure skaters from across the province. Event chairman was Marion Cook.
