

Bantams win four games out of five

The Edwards Murphy Bantams are on a playoff roll; four wins in five starts in their round robin series.

Monday night was a Clipper blast. It was a lopsided 14-4 win over Pickering that gave Kevin Francis one of his best games of the year. Francis hammered in four goals, two unassisted, while Kent Smythe and Craig Stronach both recorded two apiece. Markers also went to Rob Parham, Kirk Smythe, Danny Larmer, Darrin Baston, Mike Ferguson and Kevin Blacktop, assists going to Kirk Smyth, Kevin Hamilton (3), Brad MacDonald, Larmer (2), Kent Smythe (2), Ferguson (2), Aaron McWilliams, Francis, Baston and Ham.

The action moved to Pickering on Wednesday for a repeat performance. This time the hosts got nailed 8-2, spearheaded by a fine four-goal performance by Mike Ferguson. Kent Smythe added a pair, singles going to Kirk Smythe and Baston. In on the assists were Stronach, Blacktop and Kent Smythe.

The Clippers continued to route playoff opposition with a 6-2 win over Whitby on Friday night. Scoring were Larmer (2), Francis (2), singles going to Kent Smythe and Darrin Baston. Assists went to Blacktop (3), Stronach, Hennze, Parham, Larmer and Ferguson.

Time out from their playoff schedule gave the Clippers their only loss of the week. They met Port Perry in exhibition play on Saturday and dropped a 4-3 decision. Hennze, Kent Smythe and Ferguson scoring for the Clippers.

Ajax went down 8-3 on Sunday night in game five of the playoff series. Parham, Kirk Smythe and Kevin Francis contributed a pair each, singles coming from Kent Smythe and Stronach. On the assists were Baston (3), Ham, Hamilton and Kent Smythe (2 apiece). Parham, Blacktop, Kirk Smythe and Kent Smythe.

Fame Clippers fail in tournament bid

The Fame International Atom Clippers met their old rivals, Port Perry, on Monday, handing them a 5-2 loss.

David Sporenberg opened the Clipper scoring on assists from Brandon Pridham and David Caramanico, while Darrin Zeller followed up with his first of two goals. Pridham singled from Jay Scaife and Tim Lavell, while Scaife rounded out the scoring on assists from Lavell and Jason Scott.

At Unionville over the weekend, the Clippers met tough opposition in tournament play. They dropped their first game against Midland, going down 5-2. Clipper goals came from Pridham and Nathan Brown.

Game two proved an exciting one for the Clippers. They met London in an evenly matched game and opened the scoring on a goal by David Sporenberg, on Paul Trentaue's assist.

London pulled ahead in the middle frame and it wasn't until the third period that the Clippers were able to tie it up, this time on a goal by Jason Whitebread from in front of the London net, assists going to Scaife and Pridham.

Whitebread scored again to put the Clippers ahead, the assist going to Tim Lavell, while London managed to tie it up late in the game and force overtime.

In the shootout, it was Whitebread who finally got the winning goal to put the Clippers into the next round.

Unfortunately the Clippers were faced with a triple 'A' team from New York and were overwhelmed 6-0.

Bruins face elimination

This Friday should effectively eliminate the Uxbridge Bruins from further playoff action.

The Bruins, who have been struggling all season, opened their seven-game series against Bowmanville at home last Friday. The start was, to say the least, a disaster. Not only did they drop their opening game 7-1 on home ice, but they succumbed 10-4 in Sunday's away game.

Shutout humiliation was averted on Friday with a goal by Paul MacEwan, but it was not a promising start to a playoff series.
