

Stouffville skaters did well at the recent Uxbridge Invitational. Maureen Ferguson (left) collected a silver in the senior ladies final event, while Jeni Barker picked up a gold in her ladies pre-preliminary flight. Stephanie Barkley (right) was also in the medals with a silver in the junior 'C' ladies.

Cagers win at Aurora

In basketball action at the High School, the Midget team recently upset King City 38-30. Strong play by Jonathan Hall and Guy Cowan was instrumental in the win.

The junior and senior squads took part in the Red and Gold tourney at Aurora last Wednesday. The juniors, despite some tough breaks, managed to capture the consolation award, while the consistently strong senior team emerged with the championship trophy.

Well done Spartans.

Hockey fun night Kinsmen take to ice

The Stouffville Kinsmen, in conjunction with the girls' and minor hockey associations, are presenting a night of hockey Saturday Feb. 16 at the Stouffville arena.

The evening starts off at 7 p.m. with an intermediate game, followed at 9 p.m. with a challenge game between a girl's allstar team and the Kinsmen.

The first period matchup is between the junior girls (10 to 15 yrs) against the Kinsmen Father-Son team. Periods two and three will be between the intermediate and Legion teams, featuring ten girls from the All Ontario championship team vs the Kinsmen NoStars. Tickets are available at 1001 Variety, Guaranty Trust, and at Kinsmen Bingo on Feb. 13, also Sunday night at girls' hockey from 7:30 p.m. Tickets will also be available at the door at 7 and 9 p.m. on the day and are available both games. There will also be cash prizes to a total of $300. Sounds like a fun night.
