Sorority member honored

Dianne Darling, (left), Loretta Crescent South, Stouffville, was honored at a Beta Sigma Phi sorority ceremony, Feb. 5, in the Parkway Hotel, Hwy. 7 and Leslie Street. She was presented with the Order of the Rose in recognition of her sorority association spanning 22 years. Here, she receives her pin and rose from Ursula O'Connor, R.R. 2, Markham.

AROUND TOWN

BAPTISMAL SERVICE

Seven children were received into the congregational fellowship of Christ Church (Anglican), Stouffville, Sunday, through baptism. Presented were: Lynda Victoria Baker, daughter of Rick and Vicky Baker, Bristol Sands Crescent, R.R. 3, Stouffville; Kelly Leanne Bishop, daughter of Larry and Karen Bishop, Claremont; Faith Elise Inasley, daughter of Carl and Rosalyn Inasley, Churchill Drive, R.R. 2, Stouffville; Ashley Laura and Chad Ryan Kerswill, daughter and son of Roy and Nancy Kerswill, R.R. 3, Stouffville; Joshua John Andrew Ogden, son of Mark Ogden and Shelley McMurray, Stouffville; and Lyndsey Morgen White, daughter of Howard and Theresa White, Cedarvale Boulevard, R.R. 2, Stouffville.

FEELING FINE

Archie Little, R.R. 1, Markham, is home from Scarborough Centenary Hospital and feeling much better. Through The Tribune, Archie says thank you for the many cards and calls received. "They helped make my stay in hospital more pleasant and much shorter," he said.

PANCAKE SUPPER

Christ Church (Anglican), Stouffville, is hosting a pancake supper, Tues., Feb. 19 from 5 to 7 p.m. Tickets are $3 adults; $2 children under ten.

LATE ALEDA DOUGHERTY

Service was held Wednesday, (today), from the O'Neill Funeral Home for Aleda Sophia Dougherty, following her passing, Feb. 11 at Parkway Home, Stouffville. She was 93. Surviving are three sisters, Jessie Burton, Hazel Wilson and Nellie Allison. She was predeceased by three brothers, Charlie, Art and Milton.

SYMPATHY EXTENDED

Sympathy is extended to Mrs Bruce Burton of Lemonville in the sudden passing of her mother in Florida. Mrs Burton had only recently returned from the South. She returned immediately when word of her mother's death was received.

GERTOL FOLLIES

The Silver Jubilee Club is sponsoring two buses to the Geritol Follies in Hamilton, June 20. This event is for all seniors in the area. To reserve tickets, register now at the Club or call Marjorie Smith at 640-3604.

MICROWAVE WORKSHOP

By special request, Faye Glaspell is returning to the Town Library, Thurs., Feb. 14, to demonstrate more advanced techniques in microwave cookery. She will prepare eleven different dishes during the workshop that begins at 7:30 p.m. Tickets, (available at the Library), are limited. The cost is $3.00.

CHILDREN'S PLAY

The Stouffville Players are presenting "Marmalade Gumdrops" by Carol Lauck, Sat., Feb. 16 and Sun., Feb. 17 in Latcham Hall. This is a children's play with curtain time each afternoon at 2 p.m. Admission is adults, $3.00 and children, $1.50.

AID CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

Three Stouffville business people have discovered a way to assist the Stouffville Christian School and, at the same time, assist themselves. For every $10 spent at Linda's Beauty Salon, 21 Main Street East, Apples Hair Salon, 58 Main Street West and Bunny's Flowers, Success Square, one dollar will be donated to the school. All customers need do is mention the school's name when making payment and the donation will be automatic.

PLAN BABY SHOWER

Benjamin Mashinter, infant son of Charles and Becky Mashinter, will be honored at a baby shower in the Fellowship Room of the Stouffville Missionary Church, Monday, Feb. 18 at 8 p.m.

"THE NATIONS"

"The Nations", considered Canada's top male gospel quartet, will be returning to the Stouffville Pentecostal Church, Sunday, Feb. 17. The group will be singing at the evening service only.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

The first meeting of the Stouffville Horticultural Society for 1985 will be held Mon., Feb. 18 in the lower auditorium of the United Church. Mrs Harry Paisley will show slides of pictures taken during a recent trip to England. A mini flower show will include the following categories: (1) Valentine arrangement with candles; (a) Fresh Flowers; (b) Dried or artificial; (2) Look alike - an arrangement to match and accompany a greeting card; (3) A corsage, artificial, dried or fresh on fabric. The meeting time is 8 p.m.

BUY A ROSE

Members of the Exemplar Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, will be selling roses at the A & P Plaza, Stouffville, Saturday, with all proceeds going to the Heart and Stroke Association. Ursula O'Connor heads up the Rose Campaign. February is Heart Month. The 1985 goal is $11,000.

NOON-DAY LUNCHEON

The Legion Ladies Auxiliary is holding a hot beef buffet luncheon, Wed., Feb. 27 from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m., in the Legion Hall, with all proceeds going to the Town Rec. Centre Fund. The cost is $6.00 including dessert, tea and coffee. Tickets are available in advance from Doreen Goudie, (640-3364); Gladys Clarkson, (640-1941) or Marion Murphy, (640-2443).

CHOIR RECITAL

The choir from the Church of the Ascension, Port Perry, under the direction of Nancy Fairburn, will present a special evening of music, Sunday, Feb. 17 in Christ Church (Anglican), Stouffville beginning at 7 p.m. The community is invited.

Asst. Crown Attorney

Harold Sanders, father of Stouffville councillor Jim Sanders, passed away Feb. 3 at his home at Jackson's Point.

Mr Sanders was born on O'Brien Avenue, Stouffville, the same home where Jim and Lovanna Sanders and family now reside. He was a lawyer in Stouffville for a time and later served as an Assistant Crown Attorney in Toronto and York County. He was a veteran of World War II.

Mr Sanders was a Life Member of Richardson Masonic Lodge, Stouffville and served on the celebration committee when the village marked its 50th anniversary. Mr and Mrs Sanders, (the former, Viola Cloughton of Uxbridge), moved to Jackson's Point from Weston in 1954.

Besides his wife, Mr Sanders is survived by one son, Jim of Stouffville and three daughters, Shirley of Toronto, Sandra San Francisco and Mary of Jackson's Point. A brother Fred lives in Newmarket.

A service in Mr Sanders' memory was conducted from Knox United Church, Sutton.

MARY ARMSTRONG STEWART

Service was held Feb. 2 from the O'Neill Funeral Home, Stouffville, for Mary Armstrong Stewart, following her passing, Jan. 30 at Parkway Home. She was 96. Mrs Stewart, wife of the late Dr. John Stewart, is survived by a son, Dr. Duncan Stewart of Windsor, a daughter, Janet (Mrs. Edgar Evans) of Woodville, four grandchildren and one great-granddaughter. Mrs Stewart was predeceased by a sister Addie and two brothers, George and Gordon.

TRIBUTE TO LIBRARY

The Town Library Board is appreciative of a donation of $500 from the Stouffville Lions Club. The money will be used to arrange children's programs and entertainment during the March break.

LONG-DISTANCE VISITORS

Tom and Hazel Bullock of Agincourt and formerly of Ringwood, were pleased to receive visits from old friends, Bruce Brownberger of Hayden Lake, Idaho and Carl Pilkey of Assiniboia, Saskatchewan, last week.
