Soccer

The Whitchurch-Stouffville Soccer Club in their continuing effort to promote and develop soccer is hoping to send all their coaches, managers, referees and administrators to the second annual coaching seminar at York University.

The seminar, which features some of the premier coaches and educators in the county - Bob Houghton, Colin Toal (Toronto Blizzard), Bob Bearpark, Dick Howard and Tony Taylor of the Canadian National coaching staff - is being held on March 2 and 3.

The seminar format will involve two simultaneous sessions - one practical and one theoretical - which will enable participants to choose sessions most beneficial to their own personal needs.

Anyone interested in coaching or managing a soccer team should contact head coach Martin Johannessen at 640-4764 for further information.

Softball

The Goodwood Minor Softball Association will be holding registration on February 21 and 27 at the Goodwood Community Centre from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

According to organizer Gunter Lauterbach, Goodwood will again be part of the Stouffville ball scene this season. Differences that brought about a split between the two organizations last year have been settled amicably.
