Mistrust

Dear Editor:

Bill Crothers was quoted in your newspaper of Feb. 6 as indicating ratepayers' mistrust in the administration and Board of Education, Region of York.

He expressed my feeling completely. I don't like the way the French Immersion 'take-over' of Dickson's Hill School is being handled.

First, Dickson's Hill School is STILL in Area 2, but the Supt. of Schools from Area 2 did not attend the initial meeting. Why? Dickson's Hill School is not YET in Area 4, but two representatives from Area 4 were in attendance. Why?

To my way of thinking, switching Dickson's Hill School from Area 2 to Area 4 was a foregone conclusion before the first meeting was even held. Placing the question (?) before the ratepayers was, in my opinion, merely a courtesy. The take-over move was already underway.

Sincerely,
Marianne Cooper,
R.R. 1, Unionville

Edmonton action

The basketball hangs above a crowd of players during a Vic Redman Invitational game between Uxbridge Secondary School 'Tigers' and the Winnipeg Tech School 'Hornets'. Watching the ball for Uxbridge are (left to right) Steve Stotz, (53); Terry Reesor, (33) and Doug Morgan, (14).

THE Flower & Garden Show

February 20th to 24th
Automotive Building
Exhibition Place, Toronto
Sponsored by Landscape Ontario Horticulture Trades Association

This is the finest show of its kind anywhere in the country. The very best in flowers and landscape gardens come together in one place to excite your eye and stir your imagination. Magnificent blooms, new types of flowers, shrubs and trees, rock gardens, beautifully landscaped gardens, exotic plants, wild flowers, and all the experts are on hand to give you advice. A whole street has been re-created with stores, businesses and homes in an urban setting. You can buy seeds, bulbs and crafts at "The Market Place". Save on plants at the Dutch Plant Auction. Art Displays (2 p.m. Sat. 3:30 p.m. Sun.) and Mark Cullen (11:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. Sat.) give informative talks at the Garden Theatre. Educational displays by Civic Garden Centre and floral arranging competitions daily, plus...

You could win thousands of dollars in valuable prizes. An 18' X 33' above ground oval pool. Elite by Cornelius complete with heater, filter and wooden deck. A trip for two to Amsterdam on KLM with an extra $500 in cash courtesy of Canadian International Holidays. A John Deere R72 BHP riding mower. A beautiful set of Sun Fun outdoor patio furniture by Heuser, including umbrellas.
