

Fur fashions

A fashion show of furs was a feature attraction, Friday, when the Goodwood Christian Women's Club met in the Community Hall. The apparel was from Elizabeth Furs in Markham. The model here is Betty Stonehouse of Stouffville.

Top spot

MOUNT ALBERT — The Doma Restaurant and Tavern, located on Hwy. 48, north of the Mount Albert Sideroad, is becoming a favorite spot for song-writers and recording artists. They are featuring such acts as William Wallace, Jim Robinson and others.

Both Bill and Jim have recorded in the past and are respected song-writers. Bill has released three singles in recent years with an album planned in 1985.

Jim has one single to date, with two more planned for the year ahead. Jim has also co-written with Wayne Rostad of Ottawa and has signed a recording contract with a record company.

At the Doma, new song-writers can mix with more experienced writers and learn more from people already in the business. New song-writers are invited to bring along an acoustic guitar and have their material heard. It's a new way of presenting entertainment and, at the same time, encourage the music business in Canada.
