Where are they now?

Any gals out there who played hockey in Stouffville back in the early sixties might remember the ladies team back then - it was the only one we had. They travelled to Uxbridge, Cobourg, Bowmanville, Lindsay and Ajax for their league schedule. Average age was 19 and they played together for five years. Sponsorship was a joint effort by Town business.

Amateur league

Sunday amateur hockey league action produced no change in the standings. The Family Trust North Stars executed the Electric Whalers 10-0 in a manner befitting the league leaders, while the Cristo Kings, as if to remind everyone that they are 'Waiting in the Wings' neatly carved up the Farquharson Penguins with surgeon-like precision for a 5-1 win.

The Smurthwaite Bruins suddenly came out of winter hibernation to dump the Canadian Tire Black Hawks 9-6, but it was by no means a one-sided contest.

The Caps had it over the Jets 4-1, while Betz Nordiques and the Travel Flyers were happy to settle for a 2-2 tie. Weekend goalgetters were Bill Grove and Dan Farquharson - both returned hat tricks.

Full results are as follows:
Betz Pools 2 - Travel Flyers 2
