

Amateur league recognizes Tribune editor

Hawks drop Kings 3-2

Amateur league

Surprise of the week in amateur hockey league action was the Monte Cristo Kings 3-2 loss to Canadian Tire Black Hawks. This now puts the Kings three points behind the league leaders, Family Trust North Stars, with only two more games left to decide the 1984-85 league championship.

Scoring for the Black Hawks were Bill Anderson (2) and Grant Farmer. Dave Boyd scored both Kings' markers.

In other action, Farquharson Penguins tripled the Landscaping Capitals 6-2. Penguin singles came from Randy Gray, Terry Weatherill, Wayne Emmerson, John Davis and Ron Martin. For the Capitals it was Roy Ireland with a pair.

Wayne Jackson and John Ireland were the goal-getters in Betz Pools Nordiques 2-0 win over Village Pool Jets.

Family Trust North Stars were lucky to escape with a 3-1 win over the Smurthwaite Bruins, the Bruins dominated the final frame and came close with some good shots on the Star's net. John Barnett, Bernie Anderson and Doug Gornall scored for the Stars. Clint Dickinson tallied for the Bruins.

Stouffville Travel Flyers romped to an easy 5-2 win over the Electric Whalers. Mike Jones led the Flyers scoring with a pair of goals, singles coming from Gord Ness, Peter Mabley, and Chester Congarle. For the Whalers it was Bill Milos and Murray Thompson.
