

AROUND TOWN

WHERE'S IAN?
It was back on Oct. 10 that Ian Harris, son of Ivan and Gale Harris, Main Street West, Stouffville, left on a round-the-world trip. Where is he now? Latest report puts him in Vancouver, B.C., following time spent in Australia, Tasmania, New Zealand and the island of Fiji. In Vancouver, Ian is staying with former Albert Street neighbors and friends, Pamela and John Langley. Here in Stouffville, Richard Langley of Big Trout Northern Ontario has been visiting and staying with Ivan and Gale. When Richard put in a telephone call to his family, he was delighted and surprised to find Ian there. When they get together later this week they plan to do some sight-seeing and skiing before Ian begins hitch-hiking home.

INDUCT NEW PRESIDENT
May Richards of Stouffville will be inducted as president Thursday (tomorrow) when the U.C.W. (Toronto Conference) meets this week in Stouffville United Church. More than 200 delegates are expected.

WIN EASTER BUNNIES
Greg Kirby of 472 Elm Road, Stouffville and Jean Grimbergen, 5 Churchill Drive, Musselman's Lake, were winners of giant Easter bunnies, Saturday, in two draws conducted at Widdfield Drugs in the Stouffville Plaza. Mrs. Grimbergen gave her prize to granddaughter Wendy Moore, daughter of Allan and Betty Moore of Mississauga, when the family called Sunday.

FROM MONTREAL
Alex and Barbara Szucs and family, Booth Drive, Stouffville, were pleased to have close friend Lee Hineson and son Marc of Montreal spend the Easter weekend with them.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY
Bert Card of Richmond Hill and well-known in C.N.E. circles, will be the guest speaker at the Stouffville Horticultural Society meeting, Monday, April 15 at 8 p.m. in the lower auditorium of Stouffville United Church. His subject will be "Geraniums." A craft display is planned.

HOME FROM FLORIDA
Walter and Glenys Drewery, Tenth Line South, Stouffville, are home following two months in Florida.

CHILD FIND
The Child Find program, whereby children are fingerprinted or footprinted, (depending on age), will be repeated at the Town Library, this Saturday, (April 13), from noon to 4 p.m. Boys and girls under the age of 16 must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian. The cost is $2.00 per child.

CHURCH EXPANSION
Congregational growth in Stouffville is being met by building expansion projects at several locations, some completed, some soon to be completed and some in the planning stage. Latest to be considered is at the Missionary Church where a recent vote of both members and adherents showed 68.8 percent in favor of enlarging the facility there. The Missionary Church holds three services every Sunday at 9:30 a.m., 11 a.m., and 7 p.m.

TOWN PAPER DRIVE
Stouffville's Cubs and Scouts are holding a Paper Drive, this Saturday, (April 13), beginning at 9 a.m. Residents are asked to place their tied bundles at a convenient pick-up point. Seniors requiring assistance are asked to call 640-1941 or 640-2265.

BLOOD DONOR CLINIC
A Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic will be held on Friday, April 19 in the Stouffville Legion Hall, Ninth Line North, from 2 to 3:30 and 5 to 8:30 p.m. Babysitting will be provided.

SQUARE-ROUND DANCING
The York East Chapter of the Multiple Sclerosis Society is holding an evening of Round and Square Dancing, this Saturday, (April 13) in the Stouffville Masonic Hall, Ninth Line North and Second Street. Chief organizer of this fund-raising event is Marie Adams, Main Street East. The dance co-ordinators are Gord and Kay Wagg. Tickets, ($6.00), are available at the door or by calling Marg Britton at 640-3400.

Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

On Saturday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brodie, formerly of R.R. 4, Stouffville and now residing at Bayview and Steeles Avenues, North York, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with an open house in Melville United Church. Mr. and Mrs. Brodie are the proud parents of three sons, Keith of Markham; Bryan of St.

Catherines; Neil of Brooks, Alberta and six grandchildren. They were the recipients of congratulations from Ontario Premier Frank Miller, M.P. Wm. Attewell, Don Valley East, M.P.P. Dr. Bette Stephenson, York Mills and Mayor Mel Lastman and members of Council, City of North York. — Jim Thomas

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
The Whitchurch-Stouffville Chamber of Commerce will hold its elections for 1985-86 following a roast beef dinner, Monday, April 15 at The Regal Restaurant, Main Street, Stouffville. Dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m., $15.00 per couple. In addition to the elections, a presentation will be made related to the upcoming Trade Show in the new Stouffville Rec. Centre. Members planning to attend are asked to respond by Friday, April 12.

MINOR INJURIES
Kim Graves, Fairview Avenue, Stouffville, suffered only minor injuries but her car was severely damaged in a single-vehicle accident on the 9th Conc. of Markham, Thursday morning. Bill Kingsley, staff teacher at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, brought Kim to town for treatment of an injured knee.

A high note

STOUFFVILLE — It's been a busy year for the Stouffville Christian School Sr. Band and Choir. This month, they complete an exchange with Olean, New York. On June 5, they've been invited to play and sing at Ontario Place, Toronto. The one-hour program will begin at 12 noon. Although the S.D.S.S. band entertained at Ontario Place once before under the direction of the late Ted Hawley, this will be a first for Peter Samuels, the present leader. The school choir will be directed by Jim Rehill with Jean Hammond the accompanist.

United and Presbyterian Churches hold Good Friday service

The congregations and choirs of Stouffville United and St. James Presbyterian Churches participated in a combined service, Good Friday, in the Presbyterian Church. The worship was shared by Rev. Herb Gale and Rev. Cecil Tiller with Rev. Gale bringing the message. The combined choirs were directed by Ron Brownsberger with Jean Thomas at the organ. — Jim Thomas
