Most students are pleased if they can write and speak English well. Fifteen-year-old Annika Hannan, 19th Avenue, Markham, plans on going two steps further. She hopes to become fluent in Swedish and French also, and is already part way there. She can get by, she says, in Swedish, the language of her mother's native country. And French is a favorite subject at Stouffville High.

Annika's our "Girl Next Door." A resident of Scarborough before moving with her parents to the community of Almira, 14 years ago, Annika enjoys life in the country. She has an older sister, Katrina, and an older brother, Michael, stationed in Germany with the Canadian Army. She hopes to visit Mike during a trip to Sweden this summer.

Annika is active in many areas at S.D.S.S. She plays the clarinet in the school band; serves on the cheerleading team and is the Home Room Rep. on Student Council. She enjoys theatre and would like to try her hand at acting. She may also take a modelling course this summer.

Sailing is Annika's favorite recreation. Annika has travelled to many far away places including Trinidad, The Bahamas, Sweden and California. Some day she hopes to visit Australia.

This summer, prior to her holiday overseas, Annika will work in the office of her father's insurance brokerage firm at Birchmount and Eglinton Avenue.

When asked about the most important people in her life, Annika was quick to respond. "My parents are special," she says. "we do things together."

High News

Successful May Prom

By Chris Garbutt

The end is near! Another High School year is gradually coming to a close.

Note the tell-tale signs. The annual Spring Prom was held Friday at Sleepy Hollow Golf and Country Club. It was a smashing success.

The Prom is the major social event of the season and, as everyone knows, strictly formal. Those who believe high school students are never anything more than informal would have been more than a little shocked.

Several were honored. The Queen of S.D.S.S. for 1985 is Student Council President Kelly Cowan. Runners-up are Daralee Stevens and Heather Martin.

The King of Stouffville High is Gary McGilvray, President of the Inter-School Christian Fellowship. Runners-up are Rob Reesor and Bernie Schopf.

It's interesting to note that all three were members of the champion senior volleyball team. Heather Martin and Elizabeth Sled are to be commended for their hard work in organizing the event.

Air Band Dance

The Air Band Dance, Friday, is the final social event of the year, and possibly the best. Don't miss it. It's the next best thing to seeing ten different live bands. And remember to wear your Rock T-Shirt on Spirit Day that goes along with the dance.

Qualify For Georgian Bay

Track and field is the last major sporting activity of the year. S.D.S.S. is proving no slouch in this department. In the York Regional Indoor Meet, about thirty S.D.S.S. athletes qualified for Georgian Bay competition. Tanya Townend and Lisa Weatherill did exceptionally well, placing first in the High Jump and Javelin Throw respectively.

Elect Student Council

You know the school year is nearing an end when elections are held for the 1985-86 Student Council. Nominations are now being accepted and elections will be held next week.

Finally, after all these signs are recognized, one more must be reckoned with—the return of exams!

Former teachers and students attended reunion

The Garibaldi School Reunion at the Goodwood Community Centre, Saturday, included several platform speakers. Bob McGillivray, is a former student. Isobel Beech, is a former teacher. All have personal memories of the one-room schoolhouse on the second concession of Uxbridge, now a private residence.
