

"Girl Next Door"

Makes pretty music

By Jim Thomas
VANDORF — A Whitchurch-Stouffville resident in the Toronto Symphony Orchestra?
 That's the goal Lori-ane Stewart has set for herself. With her enthusiasm, (and ability), she'll probably make it. She's our "Girl Next Door."

Lori-ane's a graduate of Whitchurch-Highlands School and now attending Dr. G.W. Williams Secondary School, Aurora.

She plays the flute in the senior Band, an instrument she first took up when only in Grade 4.

Already, this association has opened new doors for Lori-ane. She was asked to participate in a trip to New York where she played in the "Big Apple Music Concert". She also played at the school's Music Night and received a plaque for the highest music mark in her year.

While the flute's her favorite instrument, Lori-ane has also tried her hand on the clarinet, the recorder and the piano. Music, of course, is a priority subject with Math a close second. She also enjoys Theatre Arts.

Lori-ane takes advantage of every opportunity to improve on her music skills. In Grade 8, she attended a Music Enrichment Course at the Aurora Conference Centre. The seminar lasted four days.

Lori-ane recalls her Highland dance years. She took lessons at Aurora, Richmond Hill and Markham. She was a member of the Richmond Hill Highland Dancers two years and has several medals to show for competition excellence.

Although school studies keep her busy, Lori-ane works part-time at Westview Golf and Country Club.

Lori-ane enjoys the country, but also sees advantages to living in town. "That's where most of my friends are," she explains, including a "special friend", Paul Ellis, a student in Grade 10.

Lori-ane also looks on Penny Sedore as a special friend. She's the music teacher on the staff at Williams. "I like her as a teacher and the subject she teaches," she says, "it never seems like work."

Taxi smiles are free

Kathy Neilson, driver for Vet's Taxi, Stouffville, comes from a family of cab drivers that includes three brothers. A trip, almost anywhere in town, costs less than $2.00. The smiles are free. —Jim Thomas

STOUFFVILLE — Anything a man can do, a woman can do...as well.

So says Kathy Neilson, a driver for Vet's Taxi in Stouffville.

Actually, operating a taxi is nothing new for Kathy. She handled a cab while living at Cambridge. Three of her four brothers are also taxi drivers.

"It's a good way to meet people," explains this personable mother of two. So far, all the people she's met have been good. "Never had a problem," she says, "guess I've been lucky."

When Richard Evans and Danny Postill needed an additional driver, Kathy volunteered. That was eight months ago and she's still going strong.

In all her fifteen years, she's never had an accident.

"The worst was a parking ticket—in Stouffville," she notes, somewhat distastefully.

Kathy prefers daytime driving because most of her runs are to schools. She enjoys children. Her own son and daughter are aged ten and thirteen.

Kathy feels Vet's Taxi performs an excellent service here. "You can go almost anywhere in town for under two dollars," she says.

While Kathy doesn't work twenty-four hours a day, the taxi does. It's on call round-the-clock, seven days a week. The telephone number is 640-6401.
