Late Lucy Sanderson Strength in church

STOUFFVILLE—It was Lucy Sanderson's wish that her funeral service be held in Christ Anglican Church. The family respected that request following her passing, May 18, in Scarborough Centenary Hospital where she'd been a patient only a week. She was 89.

Born in London, England, association with the Anglican Church was important to Mrs Sanderson. She was active in the congregation when services were held in the little chapel on Main Street, now the site of the present Post Office.

Mrs Sanderson and her husband, the late William George "Sandy" Sanderson met while he was serving overseas during World War I. Later, she came by boat to Canada and the two were married in Toronto a few hours after her arrival.

Before moving to Stouffville, Mr and Mrs Sanderson resided at Brougham and Unionville.

Mrs Sanderson served as Past Matron of the Markham Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star. She was also active in the Stouffville Women's Institute.

Mrs Sanderson enjoyed needlework with her grandchildren the beneficiaries of her skill.

Surviving are two sons, Robert (Bud) Sanderson, Stouffville; Alan Sanderson, Moncton, New Brunswick; four daughters, Margaret Elizabeth (Betty) Larsen, Wapenagers Falls, New York; Jean O'Neill, Stouffville; Marian Lewis, Mount Albert; Edna Fairles, Gorrie; twelve grandchildren and twelve great-grandchildren.

Rev. Philip Poole conducted the funeral service, May 21, with interment, Stouffville Cemetery. The pall-bearers were Peter Sanderson, Rodney Lewis, Jimmy Fairles and Ross Mitchell.

Editor's Mail In praise

Dear Jim:

This town is full of many pleasant surprises!

I, along with a few hundred others must have had the same reaction, Friday evening, as we attended "Recital 85" at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School.

This program was the culmination of a lot of hard work and dedication by some very enthusiastic youngsters who, for several months, had been attending weekly classes at The Dance Centre, a Main Street enterprise that obviously has more going on behind the scenes than I would have imagined.

In a tightly run program, we were entertained by aspiring ballerinas, tap and jazz dancers who put forth their best efforts to show Mom, Dad, Brothers, Sisters, Grandparents and friends that beneath their reserved smiles was an abundance of talent that had been nurtured by an amazing lady and exposed for the scrutiny of all those people in attendance.

My hat's off to you, Michele Green! You are a professional teacher of unbending patience and talent. I'm amazed at the numbers of students you've taught; the variety of the program; the imaginative choreography and the way the kids put their hearts into the performance.

From one who has never been an ardent fan of your craft, I thank you for our five-year-old who was part of your program, and the rest of the family as we were so warmly by each and every performer.

And thank you, Jim, for allowing me to say what I'm sure many parents are feeling.

Sincerely,
John Whytall,
Second Street,
Stouffville

Local artist's work praised

On Saturday, members of the Silver Jubilee Art Club exhibited their paintings at an afternoon "open house". Several pieces of art work that received many compliments were completed by Mrs Elwood Fokett, Elm Road, Stouffville.

To Spain
Bill Hall, formerly of Ninth Line North, Stouffville and, for the past several years a resident of Florida, has purchased an apartment in Costa Del Sol, Spain. "I'm counting my blessings every day," says Bill.

Big Clean-Up
Stouffville's big clean-up campaign is set for Sat., June 8 from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. Participants, expected to be close to 100, will meet at the (old) arena. Noon-day lunch will be served under the pavilion in the Park.

Women's Fellowship
A Women's Fellowship Hour will be held at Christ Church (Anglican), Sunset Boulevard, Stouffville, Thursday, (to-morrow), from 9:30 to 11:15 a.m.

Roses for a lovely lady

On Friday evening, The Dance Centre, Main Street, Stouffville, held "Recital 85" in the gymnasium at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School. At the conclusion of the concert, six-year-old Malcolm Gilderdale, Main Street West, presented a bouquet of red roses to the studio's talented teacher, Michele Green.
