

Honor long-time Ringwood area residents

Noel and Iris Ramsey (right) and Daphne Alexander (left) Mrs. Ramsey's sister, were honored May 25 at a community farewell in Ringwood Christian Church. They were presented with a beautiful clock following an address delivered by Eldred King, a former neighbor. Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey and Mrs. Ramsey's sister are leaving the end of this month to take up residence in a new home in the Hockley Valley. They were the owners and operators of Ramsey's Florists almost 25 years. — Jim Thomas

 Plan greater sharing of Jubilee clubhouse

STOUFFVILLE — The Silver Jubilee Club is beginning a new year with a new president. Sydney Cooper was the choice of the membership at the annual meeting, May 29. He succeeds Nola Porter, president for 1984-85. Other positions have been filled by: Bruce Empringham, vice-president; Marjorie Smith, treasurer; Edith Lewis, secretary; Beatrice Wideman, Edith Bacon, Ruby Holzschuh, Margaret Wagg, Elmore Barkey and Elwood Foskett, directors. George Schlukbier, Director of the Whitchurch-Stouffville Parks and Recreation Department was in attendance. He explained the new system of sharing the building with Home Support Services. The Club has use of the premises except for the office; that is reserved for Home Support, seven days a week. With the new arrangement, Home Support will utilize the building on Mondays from noon until 6 p.m., if necessary.

Mr. Schlukbier explained that Home Support probably wouldn't need the building every Monday. However, if a situation arises when Home Support is using the facility and the Club requires space to conduct an activity, the Town will provide the Silver Jubilee Club with accommodation at Latcham Hall or another suitable location. He told his audience, the Town is planning to purchase the property on behalf of the Club and said: "The Town will guarantee the building for the use of senior citizens." Members responded with warm applause. The meeting continued with reports from various committees relating to the 1984 fiscal year. Membership has increased from 220 recorded in the last year's minutes to 242 this year. New members are welcome. Upcoming events at the Club include a bus trip to Cullen Gardens, June 18; a concert by the Town Band in the Park, June 26 and a barbeque at Parkview Home, June 27.
