

Church filled for dedication service

This photo, taken from the balcony of Stouffville Pentecostal Church, shows only a portion of the sanctuary's size. The new facility was dedicated at a special service, Sunday afternoon, with the congregation's pastor, Rev. Craig Pitts in charge. The message was brought by Rev. David Mainse of 100 Huntley Street with special music by Norma Jean Mainse and the home church choir.

A proud project

STOUFFVILLE — The enlarged sanctuary of Stouffville Pentecostal Church echoed to the joyful noise of words and music, Sunday, as the congregation celebrated the dedication of its handsome new facilities.

The actual dedication service was held Sunday afternoon. Participants included Rev. Craig Pitts; Rev. David Moran; Regional Chairman Eldred King; Town Mayor Tom Wood; Rev. Marilyn Ressler, Secretary of the Ministerial Association; Ray Laird, Chairman of the Building Committee; Lawrence Bell, Construction Supervisor; Rev. James Weller and Rev. Tom Richardson of the Pentecostal Assemblies, Eastern Ontario and Quebec, and Greater Toronto respectively.

Rev. David Mainse of 100 Huntley Street, delivered the message with special music by Norma Jean Mainse and the Stouffville Pentecostal Church choir. The act of dedication was led by Rev. Pitts. Even as the congregation was celebrating completion of this latest project, the Building Committee given over to sacred music led by the Lorne Matthews Family. An open house at the conclusion of the dedication service allowed visitors an opportunity to inspect the new facilities and enjoy a time of refreshments and fellowship.

Her courage praised

STOUFFVILLE — Service was held from St. James' Presbyterian Church, Wednesday, for Mrs. Florence Ross, Winlane Apartments, Stouffville, following her passing, May 27, in Scarborough Centenary Hospital.

Although in declining health several months, Mrs. Ross never lost her "fighting spirit", a fact referred to by Rev. Herb Gale in his funeral message.

"She had a fighting spirit that persevered to the end," he said.

Rev. Gale noted that, in spite of pain, she always retained the sparkle in her eye. "Her life was a challenge to us all."

Florence Ross was born in England, May 14, 1907. In 1913, the family moved to Teeswater, Ont.

was born three sons and two daughters. Surviving are Bill and Doris Ross of Vivian; Larry, Linda, Brian and Billy; George and Joy Ross of Stouffville; Tim and Greg; Cecil and Rosa Ross and son of Calgary, Alberta; Lillian of British Columbia; and Cathy and Earl Rowe of Goodwood and Margaret and John Vanderligt, Denise and Don Norton; Stan and Sherry Rowe and Ron Rowe.

There are eight great grandchildren: Darrell, Dwayne and Diane Vanderligt; Michele and Cheryl Norton; Earl and Julianne Rowe and Nicholas Rowe.

Surviving also is a brother, William and a sister, Lillian. Mr. Ross Sr. predeceased his wife in 1964.

Following the service, Wednesday, interment was made at Stouffville Cemetery.
