

Co-operate on clean-up campaign

Saturday was Clean-Up Day in Stouffville. An estimated 140 people participated including Home Support Services that prepared the noon-day lunch. Hotdog chefs shown here are (left to right) Betty Courage, Claude Kerr, Jean Anderson and Lynda Giles. Fifteen dozen hotdogs were consumed along with five cases of pop. The hotdogs were provided by the Chamber of Commerce and the pop by Uxbridge Beverages.

These four young but willing workers were stopped by The Tribune cameraman at the corner of Main and Stouffer Streets. They are Susan Diesberger, 5, Hemlock Drive; Reagan Merrill, 6, Loretta Crescent; Sonya Diesberger, 7, Hemlock Drive and Tara Marshman, Aspen Crescent. Altogether, the 140 participants collected 170 bags of garbage over a route that extended from Ringwood to the Tenth Line.

Volunteers sweep town clean

Dear Jim:

The expression "a great time was had by all" says it all for "Pitch-In '85". Stouffville is cleaner today, as people from all walks of life and all ages collected 170 bags of garbage from Ringwood through to the Pentecostal Church, north and south of Main Street. We would definitely appear to be a throw-away society.

Thank you to 1st Stouffville Cubs; 1st to 4th Stouffville Brownies; 2nd Stouffville Guides; Mr Boadway and students from Summitview Public School and John Roberts of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School. Thanks also to our truck drivers-Councillors Jim Rae and Jim Sanders; Jim Kidd, Bill Burd, Deanna Magnus and the Jr. Farmers.

We appreciate the assistance of Claude Kerr and the ladies of Home Support Services for cooking lunch. The food, compliments of our own Chamber of Commerce, was great!

Thanks to Bob Lewis for his continued help and support with this yearly effort. Marlane McKee-Wetheral, our Recreation Co-ordinator, was on hand as always.

The students of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School are to be commended. The high school site looks absolutely remarkable! I can't remember such involvement ever.

The bin provided by Spademan's Disposal, is full. Bill Burd's grandsons from Markham, asked him when we were going to do their Town, to which he very tiredly replied, "not today, son!"

Thanks to one and all for your excellent help.

Remember, "stop before you drop!" Virginia, there really are no garbage fairies! There's only us each year.

Sincerely,
Fran Sainsbury,
Co-ordinator,
Pitch-In '85

Farewell gathering

Missionaries return soon

By Evelyn Milsted

GORMLEY — Mr and Mrs Allen Wideman and daughters are returning June 29 to Papua, New Guinea. Allen is the son of Mr and Mrs Clarence Wideman, Bethesda Road, Whitchurch-Stouffville. He is a helicopter mechanic with Wycliffe Translators. On Sunday afternoon, 40 members of the Roy Brillinger and Roy Wideman families held a farewell gathering for Allen, his wife and girls at the home of Mr and Mrs Walter Brillinger, Dr. and Mrs David Byer and family attended all the way from Rochester, Minnesota.

Congratulations to Mr and Mrs Frank Bennett on the occasion of their 45th wedding anniversary.

Rev. Allen Heise was admitted to Scarborough Centenary Hospital Sunday.

Mrs Martha Wideman spent a week with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr and Mrs Lawrence Wideman and family, Cornwall.

Mr and Mrs Ray Wideman and family of Listowel, visited recently with Mr and Mrs Frank Bennett.

Mr and Mrs John Hall of Hagersville and Mr and Mrs George Sider of Wainfleet, spent the weekend with Velma and Jean Brillinger.

Dr. and Mrs Floyd Hicks and Greg of Smith's Falls, were weekend guests of Mr and Mrs Craig Hogg.

Bessie Milne of Shippensburg, Pennsylvania, was a weekend visitor in the community.

Mr and Mrs Henry Gingrich of Baden, were weekend guests of Mr and Mrs Lloyd Hogg.

Mr and Mrs David Heise and family of Wainfleet spent Sunday with his parents, Mr and Mrs Russell Heise.

Congratulations to Rev. and Mrs Ed Sparks on the birth of their first grandson, a baby boy born to Roger and Karen Sparks, Calgary. Mr and Mrs Lloyd Hogg hosted a family party Saturday evening in honor of son Craig. Craig graduated June 13 from the University of Toronto Medical School.

More than 100 friends and relatives attended the open house Saturday afternoon at Heise Hill Church in honor of Mr Earl Milne's 75th birthday.

Over 70 relatives and friends attended the open house Saturday at the home of Velma and Jean Brillinger in honor of Mr and Mrs George Sider (Mildred Brillinger), on the occasion of their 15th wedding anniversary. Mr and Mrs Sider were married June 20, 1970 at Heise Hill Church. Rev. Andrew McNiven and Rev. Allan Heise officiated. Guests Saturday came from as far distant as Ottawa and Stayner.

The Bank-Breaking Ceremony at the Missionary Church Sunday evening, netted $432 for missionary children. Following the service, Mrs Fred Yake was presented with a lovely book in appreciation of her 50 years as Sunday School teacher and superintendent. The presentation was made by Mr Jack Wright, the present Sunday School superintendent.

The Zacharias Sisters from Willowdale will provide special music at the 11 a.m. service this Sunday, in Heise Hill Church.

The Sunday School and congregational picnic of the Missionary Church will be held this Friday at 6:45 p.m. in Victoria Square Park. A pot-luck supper will be enjoyed followed by activities for the children and a ball game at 7:45 p.m. between Gormley and Stouffville.

Rev. Leonard Sparks, 85-year-old uncle of Rev. Ed Sparks, will be the guest speaker at the 7:30 p.m. service Sunday, in the Missionary Church.
