STOUFFVILLE — In honor of their 75th anniversary, members of the Altona Women's Institute hosted an entertaining and educational program, June 5, in the lower auditorium of Stouffville United Church.

The ceremony included presentation of a Life Membership by President Edna Carruthers to Luella Lewis. Mrs. Lewis's association with the Altona W.I. goes back 39 years.

A beautiful 75th anniversary cake, decorated by Theresa (Mrs. Tom) Lewis of Uxbridge, was cut by Viola (Mrs. Jim) McCreight, an Institute Life Member.

Guests were present from a wide area including Brooklin, Claremont, Greenbank, Kinsale, Shirley, Whitby, Honeydale, Godwood, Bethesda and Stouffville.

Messages of congratulations were read by branch secretary, Marion Jensen from Murray Wagg, Past-Master of Richardson Masonic Lodge, Stouffville; Jack and Mary Chambers, Stouffville I.G.A.; Ross Stevenson, Provincial Minister of Agriculture; Eleanor Bunker, a former member now living near Minden and Eileen Junkin, Provincial Director.

Guest entertainers included soloist Dorothy Reesor accompanied at the piano by Bertha Stouffer, and Louise Leonard, a specialist in "Napin Folding".

A skit entitled "When Ladies Meet" included a cast of twelve: Edna Carruthers, Luella Lewis, Lillian Byer, Audrey Feasby, Marjorie Fretz, Doris MacAloney, Marion Jensen, Winnie Harris, Irene Slack, Bena Hodgson, Jean White and Grace Hoover.

On Wednesday afternoon, members of the Altona Women's Institute celebrated their 75th anniversary with a special program in the lower auditorium of Stouffville United Church. A highlight of the event was the presentation of a Life Membership Certificate to Luella Lewis (left), by Altona W.I. president, Edna Carruthers.

It was a memorable occasion

Dear Jim:

We wish to thank the Stouffville Tribune for all the coverage provided the Garibaldi School Reunion. The pictures and articles published a month prior to the reunion had a lot to do with the success of our endeavor.

I'm sure people will be interested to know that as well as a good attendance and a fine day, we had enough money from admissions and donations to clear all expenses. The reunion was a complete success all around.

Thanks again for your help in making it happen.

Sincerely,
Ivan DeGeer
Reunion Chairman
