

Uxbridge christian show

The Continental Singers and Orchestra will perform a concert of contemporary Christian music in Uxbridge Thursday, July 25.

The show begins at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium at Uxbridge Secondary School.

This year's concert theme is an action phrase — "Now or Never. Together we can make a difference" — to help people in need around the world.

Since they were first organized in 1967, various editions of the group have made over 9,000 domestic appearances and played over 2,700 foreign concerts.

Auditions for upcoming tours will immediately follow the Uxbridge performance.

Name that Building

Name the building shown above and you could win $25 in the Weekender's Name That Building contest. Bring entries to the Economist and Sun office, 9 Heritage Rd., Markham, or the Tribune office at 54 Main St. W., Stouffville, no later than 9:30 a.m. Thursday, July 25. Last week's winner was Paul Duffy of Markham, who correctly identified the Ford Electronics building on Birchmount Rd. in Markham's industrial area. — Sjoerd Witteveen

Antique car display

The 12th annual Antique and Classic Car Show is planned for Sunday, Aug. 11 on the grounds of the Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum.

Time of the event is 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Owners of cars participating in the show will be admitted free. For others, the price is $2 adults, children 12 years and under free.

Two special awards will be presented — The People's Choice and The Drivers' Choice. There will also be awards for runners-up in both classes. Activities will include more than viewing antique and classic cars. Working steam and gas engines will be on display along with a fish pond for the children and plenty to eat and drink.

The Bogartown Women's Institute will hold a bake sale and a raffle will be held on a Robert Bateman print.

Bluegrass music groups will serenade the crowd.

The Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum is located on the west side of Don Mills Road (Woodbine Avenue), three miles north of the Bloomington Road in the hamlet of Vandorf.

In case of rain, the show will be held Aug. 18.
