

Sympathy extended

By Doris Burton
649-2429

CLAREMONT — Word was received this past week of the death of Allan Tomilson, the youngest son of Dr. and Mrs. Nelson Tomilson. Allan grew up in Claremont and was stricken with polio as a child. He married and moved to Hamilton, where he died following a long period of poor health. Sympathy is extended to the Tomilson family on behalf of the people of Claremont.

Rev. Cam Watts received a visit from his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Stroud, on the occasion of his birthday, July 21.

Combined church services will be held at Claremont Baptist Church for the month of August, effective Aug. 4.

On Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ward entertained their granddaughter, her husband and son from Kingston.

Congratulations to Bonnie and Danny Calhoun who celebrated their first wedding anniversary on Sunday, July 21.

Survey 'tainted'

A recent survey was "tainted" because it included tenants who don't have a direct stake in replacing a contaminated area.

Claremont water systems, says the president of the hamlet's community association.

John Marks said many members of the ratepayers' group feel only actual property owners should have been questioned in the Town poll.

African singers

By Marjorie Woodland

FOURTH LINE — Sunday, July 28, will be a special day at Goodwood Baptist Church. Pastor Gary Manzo will deliver the gospel message, with the music supplied by young people from Africa. Those who've heard this trio singing at Emmanuel International are anxious to have many others share this musical treat. A picnic luncheon will be held in the Sunday School room, followed by the worship service.

Six young people attended the Bible Club camp in Omeme last week. They shared some of the things they learned during Sunday's church service. The participants also displayed the awards won at the camp.

Glad to report that Art Parratt is home following surgery. However, his day-to-day activities will be restricted for some time.

Heart attacks apparently favor no age group. We're sorry to hear Sheila Smith is a patient in hospital at Newmarket after a seizure last week.

Local potato-growers report a good crop and a fair price for early vegetables now on the market.

Mrs. Gladys Morfitt (Rodman) of Vancouver, has been holidaying with the Woodland cousins at Goodwood, as well as with brother Elmer and sister Mabel Sutherland and families, Toronto.
