"Girl Next Door"

Reasons to smile

By JIM THOMAS
DICKSON'S HILL — Rosanne Houghton's smile sparkles like the water in her backyard pool. And no wonder. She couldn't be happier.

At Stouffville High, she's a four-year honor student.

She enjoys her association with the Stouffville Missionary Church.

She's a part-time staff employee at Canadian Tire. And she appreciates the closeness of her family; parents, Glen and Lucille; a brother, Kevin and two sisters Wendy and Christy.

Rosanne's our "Girl Next Door." It was three years ago that Rosanne and her family moved from Scarborough to Old Hwy. 48, Dickson's Hill.

"I was surprised," she recalls when her folks announced moving plans. "I thought it was in the middle of nowhere."

She wouldn't want to move back. "I love it here," she says.

Rosanne admits her link with the Missionary Church is important. "I want to be the best person I can," she says. She's also associated with the Inter-School Christian Fellowship at S.D.S.S.

Rosanne has high praise for those teachers willing "to go that extra mile." She mentions, specifically the High School Choir and the Variety Show. She has participated in both. Math is her favorite subject. Her June mark in Calculus was 92%.

Following graduation, Rosanne hopes to attend a Christian College in England, then enrol in a Math or Science course at university.

Rosanne "loves it" at Canadian Tire. Many of the customers are people she knows.

Holiday trips have included Prince Edward Island and Florida. Some day, she hopes to visit Europe; "when I'm rich and famous," she laughs.

Downhill and cross-country skiing are favorite sports, also swimming in the family pool.

"Polar," a beautiful standard white poodle is very much a part of the close family circle.

Wins World Title

By Evelyn Milsted GORMLEY
Mrs. Larry Ashton and son Larry, recently returned from the American Youth on Parade competitions held in Notre Dame, South Bend, Indiana. Larry is a member of the Scarborough Spirit, winners of the World Championship with the Military Corps. They also won the World Championship in the percussion division with the Scarborough Spirit Drum Line. Larry is a member of this group. A performance is planned on Civic Holiday, Aug. 5, at Ontario Place, Toronto, and at Canada's Wonderland, Aug. 10.

Mary and Adeline Reaman and Edith Stickleby, have returned from a holiday in the Canadian West.

Sympathy is expressed to Mr. and Mrs. John McCague in the passing of John's mother, Mrs. Heber McCague at York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill. Mrs. McCague was 89. The service was held Saturday from the Marshall Funeral Home, Richmond Hill, with interment Victoria Square Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hall of Hagersville spent the weekend with Velma and Jean Brillinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Regle and Mrs. Judy Regle of Ridgeway, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Winger.

Sympathy is expressed to Mrs. Allan Wideman and family in the sudden passing of a loving husband and father, July 22 at New Hamburg. Several from the Gormley area attended the funeral service held at Poole Mennonite Church near Millbank, Friday.

Mrs. Gerry Brillinger is home after several weeks in York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nigh and Matthew of Toronto, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Heise, Sunday.

Congratulations to the Gormley Missionary Church softball team, winners of the Saturday tournament at Victoria Square Park.

Gov't. by people

STOUFFVILLE — Mayor Tom Wood sees a need for more citizen involvement in the Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville.

He feels there are many people who could ably assist the municipality through expertise in particular fields including culture and recreation, transportation and environment, administration and finance, and roads and works.

While none would have a vote, their recommendations would be an asset to the decision-making process, Mayor Wood claims.

Too often, he says, councillors are forced into unfamiliar positions due to the fact members are required to serve on various committees. Finance and roads are two of the most important, he suggests.

Mayor Wood also revealed his intention of re-establishing the Recreation Committee following the official opening of the new Rec Centre in September.

Sudden death

Almost four years ago, Bruce Allan and Ruth Nighswander were married by Rev. Steven Smith, now of Grand Valley, Ont.

On July 22, Rev. Smith conducted the funeral service for Bruce from the Dixon-Garland Funeral Home, Markham, following his sudden passing, July 18. He was 27.

Born at Markham, son of Stewart and Reta Allan, Riverview Road, Bruce received his formal education there and later attended at the University of Guelph. He was an employee on the staff of Emmerson Electric Canada Limited, Markham.

AS a teenager, he was active in the Young People's of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

Less than two weeks prior to his death, Bruce and Ruth purchased a home on Elm Road in Stouffville.

Surviving besides his wife, is one daughter, Sarah; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Allan of Markham; his parents-in-law, Harvey and Elva Nighswander of Whitby; two brothers, Rae of London and Gregg of Calgary and one sister, Katherine of Toronto.

Rev. Smith was assisted at the funeral service by Ruth's brother, Rev. Daniel Nighswander of Toronto, with interment, Elmwood Cemetery, Markham. Pall-bearers were: John Mochulla, Andrew Stephenson, David Savoia, Bill Stubbs, Gordon Thompson and James Nighswander.
