DOUBLE CELEBRATION
For Mrs Olive Murphy, William Street, Stouffville, and Dr. and Mrs Bill Murphy, Main Street West, Stouffville, Saturday was a double celebration day. In the afternoon, Mrs Murphy Sr. was honored on the occasion of her 80th birthday. The party was held at the Silver Jubilee Club. Later, much to the surprise of Bill and Marg, they too were honored. The occasion was their 25th wedding anniversary. The gathering was held at their home.

FROM SCHOMBERG, ILL.
Susan and Peter Parrison accompanied by children Peter and Tommy from Schomberg, Illinois, arrived Monday to spend two weeks with Susan's parents, Mr and Mrs Cliff Dunkeld, William Street, Stouffville.

EIGHTIETH BIRTHDAY
Twenty-eight family relatives and close friends enjoyed an outdoor gathering, Saturday, at the home of Bun and Dixie Sellers, Harold Street, Stouffville. The get-together was in honor of Harry Forrester, R. R. 1, Unionville, (Cashel), Dixie's father, who marked his 80th birthday, Tuesday.

RE-ENTERS HOSPITAL
On Tuesday, Ruby (Holzschuh) Morgan, Manitoba Street, Stouffville, re-entered Scarborough Centenary for a second round of surgery. Ruby's many friends wish her a complete recovery.

TRIP TO BULGARIA
Katherine Hope, daughter of Don and Louise Hope, R. R. 3, Clarendon, has left on a three-week trip to attend a folk dance festival in Bulgaria. Katherine is a member of a Montreal-based folk dance group.

HOME FROM NEW YORK
Gary and Ann Grunday and family, Hawthorne Avenue, Stouffville, have returned from an enjoyable holiday trip to New York.

Hundreds honor couple

MARKHAM — The family of Rev. J. Allan and Anna Heise hosted an 'open house' Sunday, in honor of their parents' 50th wedding anniversary. The celebration was held at 65 Drakefield Road, Markham. Allan was born in Gormley, son of Joseph and Ada Heise. He has one brother, Russell.

COMBINED SERVICE
The congregation of Stouffville United Church will join with the congregation of St. James Presbyterian Church for a combined service this Sunday, (Aug. 4), in the Presbyterian Church. Rev. John Duncan of Stouffville will bring the message. Time of worship is 10 a.m.

Mrs Heise, the former Anna Winger, was born at Ridgeway, Ont., daughter of Alvin and Louisa Winger. She has a brother, Clifford and three sisters, Helen, Marian and Rhonda. At the age of seven, Anna moved to Gormley where she attended Ontario Bible School. It was there she met Allan. The two were married June 29, 1935.

NEW BANK HOURS
Beginning Aug. 6, the Stouffville Branch of the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce will be open Monday through Wednesday from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., and Thursday and Friday, 9:30 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Allan and Anna spent their honeymoon in North Bay later taking up residence in Gormley. After leaving the community, they resided in a number of places, including San Francisco, Hamilton, Hagersville and Welland.

OFFICE BREAK-IN
York Regional Police are investigating a break-in, July 22 at the office of Lee Sand and Gravel Limited, Ninth Line North. Taken from the premises was $1,000 in cash, five cases of soft drinks and a battery.

Rev. and Mrs Heise are proud of their family that includes five children: LeRoy and Lillian Heise of Guelph; Marilyn and Laurie Hadden of Napanee; Merle and Phyllis Heise of Brampton; Roger and Barbara Heise of Wellandport and Myron and Susan Heise of Georgetown. They have eleven grandchildren.

PLAN OUTDOOR WORSHIP
On Wednesday, (today), the Stouffville Pentecostal Church takes possession of an additional eight acres of land around the sanctuary. To celebrate this acquisition of property, an outdoor worship is planned for 11 a.m. Those attending are asked to bring lawn chairs.

Rev. and Mrs Allan Heise, Drakefield Road, Markham, were honored by hundreds, Sunday, at a gathering in celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary.

GRADUATION CEREMONY
A home staff and Jamaican team graduation ceremony will be held Thursday evening, (to-morrow), at Emmanuel International Centre, R. R. 4, Stouffville, beginning at 7:30 p.m. Guest speaker is Rev. Les Tarr.

WEDDING CEREMONY
Congratulations to Danny Jackson and Gerry Ingersoll on their marriage this Saturday, (Aug. 3), at 3 p.m., in the Stouffville Pentecostal Church.

Mr. and Mrs Heise are the proud parents of four sons, one daughter, and eleven grandchildren. —Jim Thomas
