

Johnston's silver leads way

Medals and new club records were the results of the Town of Markham Aquatic Club (MAC's) participation in the recent provincial age group championships. MAC placed a respectable 13th out of the 46 clubs competing in the tough competition.

Leading the way was the 400-metre freestyle relay team of Jennifer Cardwell, Stephanie Schulz, Wendy Johnston and Renee Altmann, who tied for first and a gold medal. The same tandem earned a bronze in the 200-m freestyle relay.

Individually Johnston was the top MAC performer with a silver in the 200-m individual medley and a bronze in the 100-m butterfly. She also claimed a sixth and a fifth.

Thirteen-year-old

Laurie DeMorest picked up a bronze in the 200-m butterfly and Renee Altmann, also 13, reached the finals in two events.

Julie Klein, swimming in the 11- and 12-year-old group, set three MAC records while grabbing top eight finishes in the 200, 400 and 800-m freestyles. Karen Por-

Saints should become sinners

By KELLY CONNELLY
The Stouffville Saints must learn to be sinners if they want to win ball games.

The bantam A girls softball squad came out of the Provincial Regionals in Belleville last weekend with a 1-2 win-loss record — in boxing idiom that means KO'd.

The team won its opener against teous earned a sixth and set a new MAC time in the 100-m breaststroke.

Porteous and Klein teamed up with Kristina and Karen Jones to grab a fifth and a seventh in relay events.

For the 10- and younger swimmers, Suzanne Dixon earned two sixths. She then joined Karla Klein, Kim Orr and Stephanie Escott to claim two fifths and a seventh in relay competitions.

Tyler Cave set a MAC record in the 100-m freestyle for the 10-and-younger group.

Just missing out on qualifying for the finals of an event were Greg Curgenven, Gannon Jones, Todd Baron, Dalen Sharp, Scott Crone and Jason Dickinson.

Johnston, 15, won a gold and two bronze to lead the way for MAC at the recent Etobicoke Age Group International Meet.

In 15-17-year-old breaststroke swims, Johnston topped the 200-m event and finished third in the 100-m competition.

In the same age group, Brndiar picked up a bronze in the 200-m freestle and reached the finals of two other swims. Lyaca Sharp gained a third-place finish.

Altmann claimed a bronze in the 13- and-14 100-m butterfly. De Morest and Karina Collie had two placings, while Julie Williams earned one.

Suzanne Dixon collected a sixth and an eighth in girls' 10- and-younger competition.

Ken Ahlberg swam to a bronze in the boys' 15-to-17-year-old 100-m butterfly. He also placed in the finals of two swims, while Greg Stokes placed in one.

Cameron 16-6 and then softened up to lose its next two games.

Smith Falls downed the local girls 14-2, and Kingston knocked them out of tourney contention with a 13-10 comeback blitz late in the game.

Saints Lynda Belisle pitched a strong opener against Cameron, fanning seven batters. Liz Leman's homer in the second coupled with solid three-run slugging performances from Karen Lanning, Shawn Morrison and Belisle secured the win.

However, the squad lived up to its angelic name in the second game by walking 12 Smith Falls batters to effectively hand them the win.

Leman and Leanna Boyd scored the Saints only two runs in the third inning.

Facing elimination in its third game against Kingston, Stouffville held on to a two-run lead going into the sixth inning. To that point, Kelly Watling's fourth outing triple scored a couple runners for the Saints' best showing of the contest.

Kingston retaliated in the sixth with a five-run assault and the win.

Vicky Smith rounded the bases to score Stouffville's final run of the tournament.
