The kitchen has plenty of cupboard space, vinyl flooring and ceiling lights.

Large two-storey home in downtown Uxbridge

Located on 75 Main St. South in Uxbridge, this two storey brick house has been chosen as our Weekend Home of the Week.

This century home on a half-acre lot is fully fenced and well landscaped.

The main floor dining room opens into a large living room which is completed with a brick fireplace.

The kitchen has recently been renovated with lots of cupboards, vinyl flooring and ceiling lights. The stove, oven, microwave and refrigerator are included.

Built-in cupboards and cedar planking have recently been installed in the main floor laundry room. The office, also on the main floor, has built-in cupboards. There is also a two-piece bathroom located on this floor.

The entrance foyer of this home is large with a main staircase leading to the second floor. There is also a back staircase that has been fully insulated and renovated.

The master bedroom has built-in, well lit cupboards and drawers which eliminates the need for dressers. The two other bedrooms, plus the master bedroom, have access to a four-piece bathroom.

The second floor family room, which can also be used as a fourth bedroom, has a fireplace.

Amenities include central vacuuming system, broadloom, where laid, and the living room and dining room drapes.

The asking price for this home is $159,900 and it is listed with Family Trust Corporation Realtor in Uxbridge. For further information contact agent Gay Lacoursiere at 294-1372 or 640-1065.
