Late Fred McNair

At Stiver's 30 years

STOUFFVILLE — Rev. Donald Pugh, former pastor of Altona Missionary Church, conducted the service, Thursday, for Fred McNair from the O'Neill Funeral Home, following his sudden passing, July 30 at Parkview Home Stouffville. He was 78.

Mr McNair was born on the 5th Conc. of Markham Twp., the son of William and Elizabeth (Meyer) McNair.

As an employee at Stiver Bros., Stouffville, more than 30 years, Mr McNair became well known both in town and throughout the countryside. Later, he worked at Crest Hardware on Main Street.

As a young man, Mr McNair was an enthusiastic hockey, baseball and football player. He never lost his love for sports and when he couldn't play the games, he enjoyed watching from the stands.

While living at Altona, he served as a deacon in the church there. He also took an interest in all activities in the community.

After moving to town, Mr McNair resided on Church Street North and later with his sister, Mrs Flossie Thompson on Main Street. He took up residence at Parkview Apartments about three years ago and then moved over to Parkview Home.

Mrs McNair, the former Evelyn Reesor, passed away almost four years ago.

Surviving are two children, a son, Robert in Kitchener; a daughter Charlotte, (Mrs Ben Archer), at Parry Sound; one brother, Earl at Enniskillen; one sister Flossie in Stouffville and three granddaughters, Adrienne and Natalie Archer, and Erin McNair.

Pall-bearers were Lorne, Earl and John Thompson; and Lockie McNair. Interment was at Stouffville Cemetery.
