

MICHELE CHARBONNEAU

Carrier of the Week

Eleven-year-old Michele Charbonneau and her nine-year-old sister Danielle have been with the Economist for only two months. The Charbonneau family recently moved to Markham so the girls took the route to get to know their neighborhood better. This September the girls will be attending St. Madeleine's Catholic School in Toronto. Their special interests include reading and playing ringette.

DANIELLE CHARBONNEAU

Uxbridge woman

Trial date set

A 28-year-old Uxbridge Township woman will appear in Ajax provincial court Aug. 29 following Sunday's siege at an area horse farm.

An armed woman surrendered to police on the grounds of Positive Outlook Farm near Coppins Corners after keeping Durham Regional Police at bay for over 12 hours.

Hillary Hogg of R.R. 1 Claremont faces a charge of careless use of a firearm.

The suspect was taken to Durham Police Headquarters in Oshawa and later released.

Hogg is on sick leave from her job as a Police Constable with the Metro force.
