

Welcome many church visitors

By Marjorie Woodland
FOURTH LINE — The Baptist Church welcomed many visitors on Sunday to the morning worship and baptismal service. Several former church families were present from Ajax, Bobcaygeon and Haliburton, as well as Stouffville and Uxbridge. The church picnic will be held at the home of Ken Hockley, Fifth Line, on Thursday, Aug. 15. It begins at 6 p.m.

The May-Pearse-Kellington reunion was held Saturday at Greenwood Conservation Area. The fine day encouraged a fairly good attendance as family members shared interesting events of the past year.

Cam and Alice Stewart, Colleen and Craig, have returned from an enjoyable holiday that included visits to Moosenee, Quebec and Elk Lake.

Mrs Cyril Ball was able to be home from Newmarket Nursing Home over the weekend. She is now in somewhat better health.

Congratulations and good wishes to Janice Hilde Brandt of Aurora and Goodwood's Brian Matthew Jones. They were married Saturday, Aug. 10, in Aurora United Church. About 90 people attended the reception. The couple will be living in Bradford. Renee Jones was home from McGill University and was bridesmaid at her brother's wedding. Dick and Gertie Jones hosted a gathering for friends and relatives Sunday to honor the newlyweds. Don and Joan Bell, former operators of the Goodwood store, were present at both celebrations.

Any season is a good time to share new recipes. However, one can only substitute ingredients so much. This short poem was found in a "Dear Abby" column: "She didn't have potatoes so she used a cup of rice. She couldn't find paprika so she used some other spice. Tomatoes weren't in season so she used tomato paste. The whole can, not a cup dear, she couldn't bear to waste. And now she's rather cool to me, she thinks I pulled a fast one. Don't ask for another recipe. For that one was my last one!"

Couples sell homes

By Elsie Boland
GOODWOOD — Mr and Mrs Art Hall have moved to Uxbridge after selling their house in Goodwood. Mr Hall has been a patient in Uxbridge Cottage Hospital with a leg ailment. Fortunately, he'll now be able to recover in his new home.

Mr and Mrs Walt Todd have also sold their house in Goodwood and taken up residence in Uxbridge. Walter is recovering following surgery.

Art Parratt is in the care of his daughter-in-law following a stay in hospital. Mrs Parratt is attending a seniors' convention in Kingston with Mr and Mrs Frank Jenkinson.

A few improvements have been made at Goodwood Public School. It looks pretty good now that the bricks have been placed in the corners. A good question is: "Why did it go like that in the first place?"

Euchre will be played tonight (Aug. 14) in the Goodwood Community Centre. Starting time is 8 p.m.

There was a large crowd out to bingo Wednesday night. A lucky lady went home with the jackpot.

Return visit to Claremont

CLAREMONT — Rev. Arthur Cresswell will be the speaker Sunday at Brougham United and Claremont Baptist Church. He'll be welcomed back by the many people who knew him when he lived and preached here some years ago.

Congratulations to Danny Ridley who celebrated his 40th birthday Thursday.

Aug. 8. His surprise party was attended by relatives and friends from near and afar.

The people who chose the last few weeks for holidays have enjoyed beautiful warm weather, especially those at cottages. Temperatures have ranged between 85 and 90 most days. However, the rain on Tuesday and Saturday were welcome and we hope for more.

Man placed on probation

UXBRIDGE — A 31-year-old Uxbridge man has been placed on two years probation for striking another man in the face with a chunk of ice last winter.

Paul Henry Robinson received a suspended sentence on a charge of assault with a weapon in Whitby district court, July 24. Another related charge, that of assault causing bodily harm, was withdrawn.

He did not receive a two-month jail term, or any term of imprisonment, as reported in the Aug. 7 edition of The Tribune. The newspaper regrets any embarrassment caused to the Robinson family by this error.

Robinson became involved in an argument with two other men over a drink that was spilled in Evelyn's Restaurant on Feb. 16, court was told.

Later, 19-year-old Wesley Jackson of Centre Road North, Uxbridge, was struck in the face by a piece of ice thrown by Robinson.

Judge J.A. Hoolihan ordered Robinson to pay the victim restitution of $1,000, to be made in monthly installments. The Plank Street man must also abstain from alcohol and maintain his association with Alcoholics Anonymous.

His mother, Verlyn Robinson, told The Tribune her son "feels very badly" about the incident. She also claimed Paul had himself been beaten by two restaurant patrons just before he tossed the ice.

"The Jackson boy (Wesley) was in the wrong place at the wrong time, and he got hit," Mrs Robinson says.

Criminal negligence

To set date for accident trial

GOODWOOD — A 24-year-old Goodwood man is out on bail pending a trial on charges including criminal negligence causing death.

A trial date for William Latour is to be set in assignment court on Sept. 11. The suspect had earlier been committed to pre-trial in Whitby district court during a preliminary hearing in provincial court.

Latour was granted bail following a July 5 review, according to a spokesperson at the Crown Attorney's office, Whitby.

Florence Ingram was pronounced dead at Uxbridge Cottage Hospital on April 1, after her vehicle collided with another car at the intersection of Durham Region Road 21 and Conc. 3, Uxbridge Township.

Ingram was a long-time Claremont-area resident before moving to Whitchurch-Stouffville shortly before her death.

Latour also faces charges of impaired driving and driving with more than the legal amount of alcohol in his system.
