Uncertain future

Lack of interest in local Terry Fox Run

UXBRIDGE — The future of Uxbridge's annual Terry Fox Run remains uncertain.

Coreen Villemere of the Fox Run office in Toronto said it's still possible to salvage the Uxbridge event through last-minute planning.

"But time is running out," she told The Tribune in reference to the 10-kilometre trek scheduled for Sept. 15.

The fund-raiser is being held at locations across Canada in memory of the late Terry Fox, a one-legged cancer victim who attempted to run across the country.

He raised $23 million for cancer research through the Marathon of Hope, before his life was cut short by the disease.

"We're always disappointed when a run doesn't go on like it did in past years," Ms. Villemere said. "We're hoping that something can still be done there (Uxbridge)."

Past organizing committee chairman Nancy Hannah is unable to continue her association with the marathon due to other commitments.

She made this known many months ago, but no person or group came forward to take responsibility for Uxbridge's version of the fifth annual run.

Any interested volunteers are urged to contact Coreen Villemere at 1-800-268-8825 or Nancy Hannah at 852-7286.

Ms. Villemere said a minimum of 10 people are required to work at a Terry Fox Run site. There must also be first-aid personnel.

Uxbridge Township residents are welcome to participate at official sites in Stouffville or Beaverton. Pledge forms are available upon request at all Canada Post stations and at The Tribune office, 54-56 Main Street West, Stouffville.

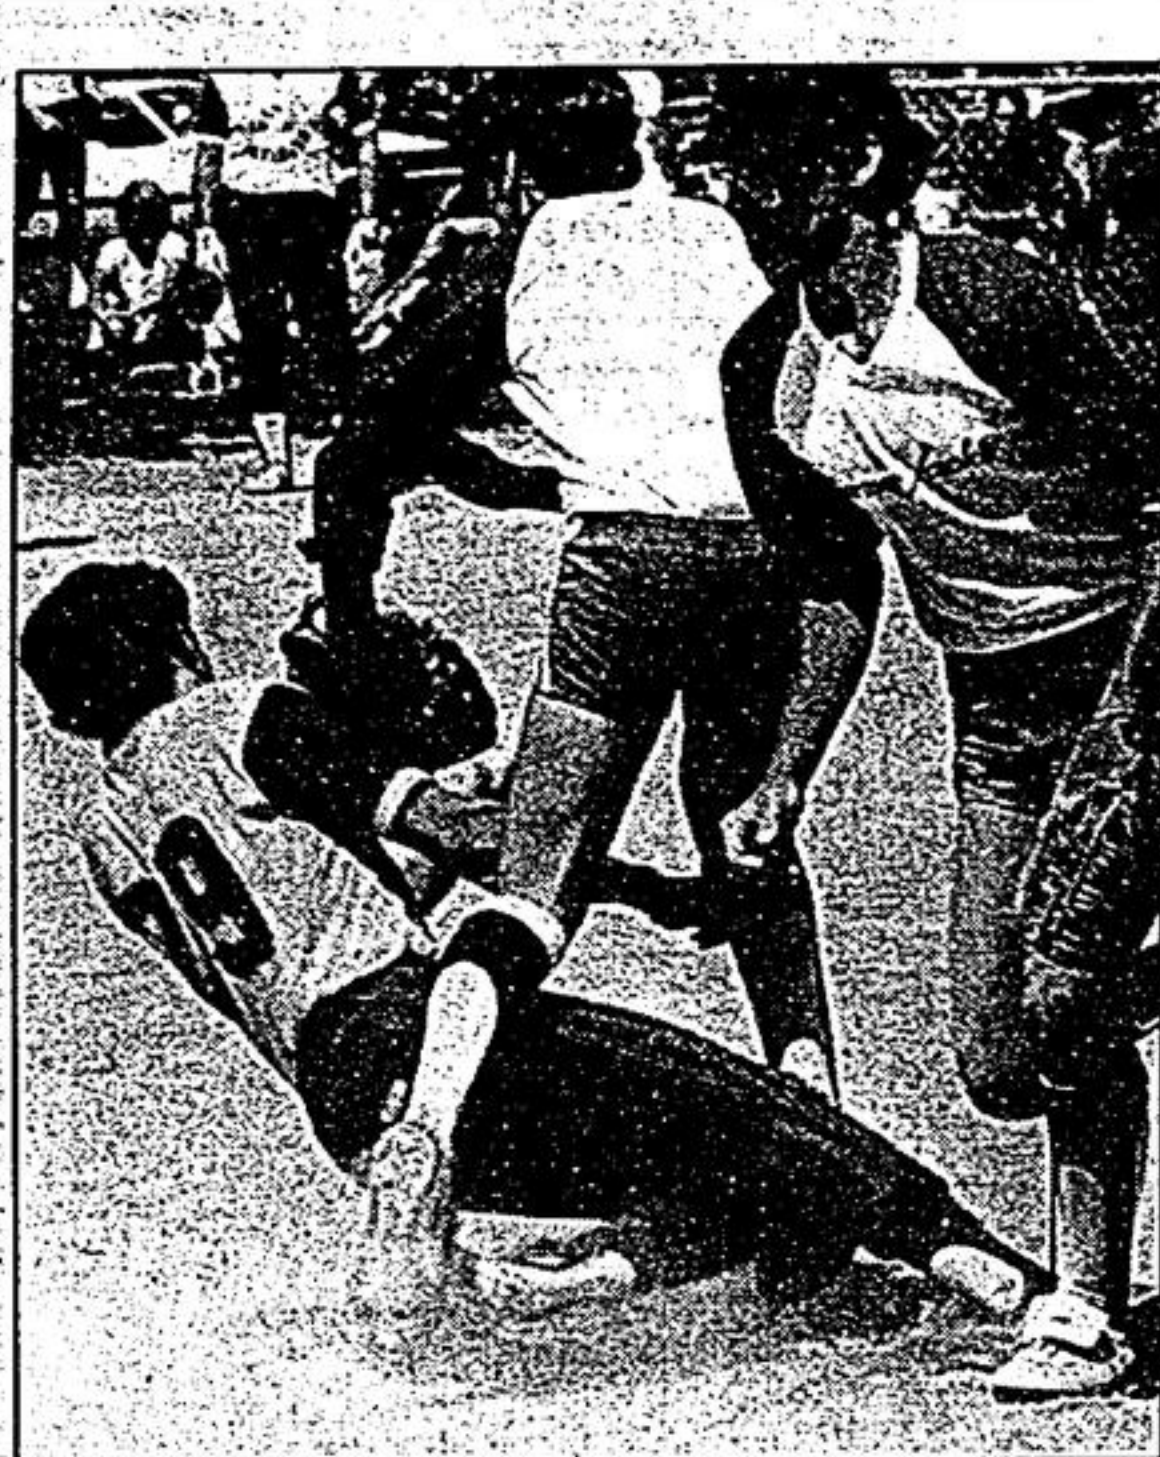

In 1984, 28 Uxbridge runners raised about $1,400 on a course at Elgin Park.

The major mosquito boys soccer club won its first game of the season Wednesday night. It beat Bradford 5-1 and pulled off the upset shorthanded! The Cougar squad includes (back row — left to right) Steven Pilkey, Scott Den ouden, coach Roy Houston, Paul Spencer, Lee Massey

Tourney action on weekend

TOP PICTURE: A City Boys' stealer finds a unique way to steal third base in Saturday's mens slopitch tourney in Stouffville. Farmer Jack's pitcher Paul Sinclair straddles the Toronto slider while third baseman Sean McQuigg jumps out of the way to avoid a nasty collision. The host Buttermakers won the championship Sunday (first prize $600). Mothers and Fathers from Markham ran second, Betz Pools placed third and Village Pools took fourth spot.

BOTTOM PICTURE: Uxbridge Underhill Flowers' slider Donna Rose steals second base in the Provincial Women's slopitch tourney at Claremont and Brougham Saturday. Unionville Merchants second baseman Leanne Campbell extends glove to snag the late throw while a teammate watches play. The Merchants went on to win the final Sunday against Unionville A & A Thumpers 5-3. Uxbridge Dominon Auto grabbed the bronze.
