

Whitchurch-Stouffville Trade Show

Planning continues

STOUFFVILLE — A mass parade of dignitaries and townsfolk will help kick-off the inaugural Whitchurch-Stouffville Trade Show, Sept. 12.

The people parade begins from the downtown clocktower at 6:30 p.m. and makes its way to the new Recreation Complex by 6:45 p.m.

At 7 p.m., Ontario Premier David Peterson is scheduled to participate in an official opening ceremony for the complex, plus a ribbon-cutting for the trade show.

The three-day fair, sponsored by the Whitchurch-Stouffville Chamber of Commerce, continues Sept. 13 and 14. Hours on the Thursday and Friday are 5 to 10 p.m., while on the Saturday doors open at 1 p.m. and close at 10 p.m.

A total of 75 booths will feature presentations and displays by a wide cross-section of area merchants.

For more information contact show chairman Jack Chambers at 640-1515.

Parkview party!

A special 'topping-off' party was held Friday at the construction site of Stouffville's Parkview Village. It's the policy of the project's engineering and contracting firm, Bradsil Limited of Toronto, to reward its workers once the final concrete portion of a building's roof is poured.

Participating in the construction ritual were, back row, (left to right): Parkview Village manager Sheila Jones, plumber Tony Muto, Parkview Home administrator Joe Nighswander and secretary Arlene Raymer. In front are sheet metal worker Kurk Lachermaier, (left), and plumber Flavio Saccucci.

STELLAR. TRY US ON FOR SIZE.

Besides giving you a lot of luxury, Stellar gives you a lot of room.

Stellar was born in the mind of the Italian designer Giorgetto Giugiaro. He deserves full credit for designing a car that tall people love.

With the driver's seat pushed back, Stellar's front legroom runs 41 inches. And you can stretch out as much as you want because the front bucket seats recline fully. They also have adjustable headrests.

Stellar's roominess extends to the back seat area as well. Three adults can travel comfortably, with plenty of hip room and 37 inches of headroom.

There is one area where Stellar is beautifully small - price. For a luxury car that comes with tinted safety glass all around, rear seat heating ducts, and Michelin all-season, steel-belted radials as standard equipment, Stellar is truly an affordable automobile. Why not visit your Hyundai dealer and ask for a set of keys. Test drive a Stellar today.
