Highland dancers and piper charm Goodwood audience

By Marjorie Woodland
FOURTH LINE — Over 100 people attended Thursday's meeting of the Goodwood Christian Women's Club. The excellent program featured award-winning highland dancers Kelly and Jennifer Hider of Cannington, with Ian Fraser accompanying on the bagpipes. They were charming entertainers. And speaker Jeanette McKay's challenging message, entitled "A Bit O' Scottish Wisdom", provided much food for thought.

Kevin and Marie King have moved back into their remodeled home after an absence of two months during which time extensive changes have been made. Mrs. Lorna Kramer and son Brian, of Winnipeg, Man., have been visiting at her parents' farm and also with relatives in Goodwood and Toronto.

Don and Essa Kidd of Islington and Melody and Rae King of Musselman's Lake were Sunday visitors with Ted and Nancy Kidd. Don's peach tree yielded a bountiful harvest this year and he proved this with a fine sample.

The rain and cool weather put a definite damper on Steam Threshing Days at Quaker Hill, Saturday. The attendance was somewhat improved on Sunday but activities were limited.

Young people are trying to cram a lot into their last week of holidays as they prepare for a return to school next week. Canada's Wonderland is a popular attraction with the reduced admission rates.

Women's Institutes will resume their usual schedules as fall approaches. The Goodwood ladies' first meeting will be held at the Community Centre on Monday, Sept. 2. Starting time is 8 p.m. Mrs. Rueben May is program convener on agriculture. She'll be sharing her information on barns in the area. A friendly invitation is extended to all ladies.

Readers seem to enjoy the column's closing anecdotes, so here's one for this week: As a beauty I am not a star. There are others more handsome by far. But my face, I don't mind it. For I am behind it. It's the people in front get the jar!

Claremont lady sets field mark

By Doris Burton

CLAREMONT — June Meyer of R.R. 1, Claremont, won a first-place medal in the Masters Games, Aug. 21. She threw the javelin 24.40 metres to establish a Canadian native record in her age class. The field event was held at York University.

Sorry to report that Tom Hammond and Mac Middleton are in hospital. Their many friends hope to see them home and able to be around very soon.

Congratulations to Denise Mann and Dean Holtby who were married Saturday at Brougham United Church. Guests were in attendance from Pickering, Stouffville, Claremont and some from a distance.
