

Gormley students return to school

By Evelyn Milsted
GORMLEY — It's back to school again for many Gormley and area young people. David Elliott and Mike Beadle are enrolled at the University of Guelph. Ken Rumble is attending at the University of Windsor and Marilyn Bryson and Donna Pridham are studying at Emmanuel Bible College, Kitchener.

Rev. and Mrs. Ed Sparks spent ten days with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr and Mrs Roger Sparks and baby in Calgary. Edith Stickley is visiting with her son and daughter-in-law, Rev. and Mrs Harvey Stickley in Stayner.

Mr and Mrs Alvin Sider of Stevensville were weekend guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr and Mrs Lloyd Hogg.

Rev. and Mrs. Martin Ressler enjoyed the company of his father, Mr Clarence Ressler and his two sisters, Verna Mae and Fay from Pennsylvania.

Mr and Mrs George Sider of Wainfleet spent Saturday with Velma and Jean Brilinger.

Rev. and Mrs. Roy Nigh were honored, Saturday, at an 'Open House' in the Victoria Square Community Centre on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. Many friends and family relatives from the area attended.

The annual Missionary Church family corn roast will be held this Friday, (Sept. 6), at the home of Carl and Marion Timbers, beginning at 8 p.m.

Ellen Henry of Toronto enjoyed the weekend with Genevieve Bruce.

Michael Wright has begun his apprenticeship as a mechanic.

Mr and Mrs. Lloyd Harvey have sold their home on Leslie Street and will be moving to Richmond Hill later this month.

Mr and Mrs Clifford Winger and Mr and Mrs Frank Bennett, visited with Mr and Mrs John Patfield in Collingwood, Sunday.

A New Life Crusade will be held at Heise Hill Church, Sept. 8 to 13, with Jack and Dottie Yost of Burwick, Pennsylvania, the guest speakers. Dottie will conduct the special children's sessions each evening at seven, while her husband speaks to the adults. Special music is planned for each service.

Ray Smith of MacTier will speak at the 7:30 p.m. service in the Missionary Church, Sunday, Sept. 8. He will tell of the work of the Shantymen.

Council to enforce bylaw

STOUFFVILLE — Ron and Lilly-Ann Landry's 'Place of Amusement' at 61 Main Street East must abide by conditions contained in a Town bylaw or be charged.

This is the feeling of majority members of Council following a committee meeting Aug. 27.

Council wants the premises closed Sundays and the number of amusement machines reduced from 22 to sixteen.

The Town has requested a report from police.

The owner-operators may appeal the decision, The Tribune has learned.

Prepare for Festival

The Mennonite folk of Whitchurch-Stouffville, Markham, Pickering and Uxbridge are gearing up for another big day at the 29th annual festival at Black Creek Pioneer Village.

The date is Sat., Sept. 21 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

In addition to a variety of food, the annual auction of home-made quilts will attract would-be buyers from a wide area. The quilt sale begins at 12:30.

Proceeds from all Mennonite related activities will go to the World Relief Fund. Last year, receipts totalled $35,000 with $15,600 being raised from the quilt auction.

Pulled knife on nurse

A 17-year-old youth, accused of threatening a York County Hospital nurse with a knife, was given a conditional discharge and placed on a two-year term of probation when he appeared in Newmarket Provincial Court.

According to evidence, Robert Sean Cooney had cut himself with a weapon before entering the hospital. When he was told to wait until a physician arrived, he pulled a knife on one of the nurses and said "get a doctor or you'll look like me." Police were called and arrested the youth who was disarmed and arrested.

Counsel for the accused said his client had consumed a quantity of wine and painkillers prior to the incident.

The judge, in passing sentence, described Cooney "as a mean man who picked on a helpless woman." He ordered the accused to refrain from drinking alcohol and not to possess or own any weapon.

Stouffville Licence Bureau moves to house next door

To-day, the Stouffville License Bureau is located at 303 Main Street East, the home of Fred and June Vliek. Yesterday, and for the past several years, it was located next door at 311 Main Street East, the home of Marion Murphy. Marion, (right), turned over the operation to June this week, agreeing to lend her a helping hand in any emergency. June has been Marion's assistant for the past 13 years. Office hours will remain the same, Monday through Friday from 9 to 12 and 1 to 5. A huge banner on the front of Marion's house, Saturday read "Happy Retirement."
