

Services under the 'Big Top'

STOUFFVILLE — Old-fashioned gospel tent meetings are coming back to Stouffville. It's been many years since the Big Top has been used for great church rallies, but now it's happening again. Stouffville Pentecostal Church is hosting a "Festival of Light" and setting up a huge 600-seat circus tent to accommodate the anticipated crowds. In co-operation with Frank Wilbur of the Stouffville Sales Barn, the large tent will be raised tomorrow at the base of the water tower ready for the "Festival of Light" weekend, Sept. 13 to 15.

Canadian Evangelist Bob Gal will be the guest speaker. He's been involved with Youth For Christ, Lay Leadership Institute and other well-known ministries. Special music is "Selah," four young men from Welland, led by Steve Allison who composes much of the group's music. One of the big attractions of the weekend will be on Sunday evening when The Nations will present a lively concert of gospel music at 6 p.m. The Nations have been known for several years now as Canada's favorite gospel quartette, having drawn large crowds at Canada's Wonderland and other popular places. This is their last Canadian concert because their leader, James Tomen, is taking up a new position in a Maritimes church. Another feature of the weekend will be a "Gospel Balloon Launch" at the church, 460 Main Street East, on Sunday morning at 9:45. Puppet man, Rick Evans will be on hand with an exciting story for the children.

The Festival of Light tent meetings will begin at 7:15 p.m. Friday and Saturday, and 6 p.m. Sunday. For additional information call 640-5696.

Late Lloyd Grose Hundreds pay respects

Lloyd Grose, a well-known and highly respected Whitchurch-Stouffville farmer, passed away Sept. 4 in Wellesley Hospital, Toronto.

The following eulogy was written by daughter Dale, on behalf of her mother and family. The Tribune is pleased to publish it unaltered. It's entitled "A Tribute To A Loving Father."

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of our dear father, Lloyd Grose, and share with you some details of his life and death.

On August 30, Dad suffered a cerebral aneurysm and was rushed to Wellesley Hospital where he lost consciousness and remained in a coma until September 4.

On Wednesday evening, he died peacefully in the loving presence of our mother, Helen.

Until the end, both Dad's physical appearance and youthful spirit belied his age. At sixty-four, he kept close to 400 beef cattle on the farm settled by his grand father in 1852. Dad's enthusiasm for farming was bolstered by that of our brother, Kevin, whose assistance and insights were readily incorporated into the family operation.

A life-long resident of Whitchurch-Stouffville, Dad took a keen interest in the area, serving variously as trustee of the local board for Vivian School and as a member of both the Ballantrae Community Centre Board and the Mt. Albert Legion. In addition, Dad was affiliated with the York County Plowman's Association and the Stouffville Co-operative.

The church was a primary source of strength and joy for our father. An active member of McCormack

Memorial Church at Vivian since 1936, he has served as Sunday School Superintendent and teacher, deacon and song leader. Two nights prior to the incident that resulted in his death, Dad led a Bible study on the assurance of eternal life for the believer. Underlined in his Bible was his text: "For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God."

Dad's commitment to his family has made home the place where his absence will be the most deeply felt. He is survived by his wife, Helen (Hoover) and their children, Donna and husband Ivan; Dale, Kevin and wife Mary; Anne, and Keith. Dad's sisters, Arlene, Yvonne and Phyllis; brothers Earl, Bennett and Bruce, and aunts, Arlie and Theodora, share in our loss. Together, we gratefully acknowledge the six hundred relatives, friends and neighbors who paid their respects at the funeral home and service. Your presence, kind words and deeds brought comfort. In particular, we thank Rev. W.S. Whitcombe and Rev. Walter Gawa; soloist Beverly Butcher and pall-bearers Earl Bacon, Barry Constable, Paul Grose, Jim Harrison, Walter Kowal and Ormond Toole for their part in the service that was held Sunday at the Mount Albert Missionary Church.

As well, we recognize the gracious service of the Ladies of McCormack Church at the reception following interment at Hartman Cemetery. The loving support of all concerned helped make our sad day a little easier.

In memoriam, donations will be accepted for Missions at McCormack Memorial Church, R.R. 3, Stouffville.

Late Mary Busato

Close to family

STOUFFVILLE — Service was held Saturday from St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Highland Creek for Mary Busato, Tenth Line South, R.R. 1, Stouffville, following her passing, Sept. 3 in Scarborough Centenary Hospital.

Mrs. Busato, the former Mary McGriskin, was born at Agincourt, daughter of Joe and Veronica McGriskin. In May, 1957, the family relocated their business, known as L & M Gardens, on the 10th Concession of Markham. In 1977, they expanded the operation to include property on the west side of the 10th and built a new home there. Mrs. Busato was intensely interested in the gardening operation and assisted with it at every opportunity. She also enjoyed quilt-making, knitting and crocheting.

She was associated with St. Mark's Catholic Church in Stouffville. Father James Adams conducted the service.

Mrs. Busato was proud of her family that includes husband Louis; sons Frank, Bob and Jim and daughters Helen Frenette and Rita Palmer. Another daughter, Anne, passed away several years ago. There are four grandchildren, Anne, Danny, Matthew and Ian.

A sister, Margaret Brandon, resides in Agincourt.

Host male choir

BAKER HILL — The Toronto Presbyterian Male Choir, under the leadership of Cyril Redford, will present a service of sacred music, Sunday, Sept. 22 at 7 p.m. in Baker Hill Baptist Church.

Mr. Redford will be remembered by many as the choir director during the evangelistic crusades in the Arena during the 1950's. Choir membership at that time included representatives from the majority of churches in the community.

One of the Presbyterian choir members is Bruce Gallamore, formerly of Stouffville.

A time for fellowship and refreshments will follow the worship.

HYUNDAI PONY OWNERS ARE NEVER AT A LOSS FOR WORDS.

"I was impressed with the way the car was made. The doors go thump. When you drive over a railroad crossing, nothing goes rattle, rattle or bang, bang, bang. It goes thumpy-thump—the way a much heavier car would do."

Matthew Scott, Hyundai Pony owner from Halifax, Nova Scotia.

"I'm a commuter to Toronto. I commute five days a week and it's roughly 57 miles one way, which would be about 114 round trip. The ride is fabulous for a four-cylinder car."

I'll tell you, when you get into it, it's super. I call this my super little car.
Graham Pinkerton, Hyundai Pony owner in Stroud, Ontario.

"I don't like to drive like I'm on a race track, but I like a peppy car. I used to do a lot of car rallying, so I like a car that feels nice on the road and corners nice. It gives me all the power I need."

One of the things I like about it is the stuff I can do myself. I open the hood of my Pony and I know what everything is. Everything is easy to get at. If I were to get another car, it would be a Pony.

It's a good value.

Danny Lineham, Hyundai Pony owner from Edmonton, Alberta.

"In the driving school industry we do a lot of stop and go driving, that's hard on the engine. The maintenance requirements have been very reasonable, considering we've put 60,000 kilometers on the car in thirteen months."

The instructor that drives the Pony all the time—he's a six-foot-one fellow. You have to look at it from his point of view, he's the one who lives in that car six days a week and he really finds it comfortable.

The students love the car. We've had about twelve go down and buy a Pony after they finished their training.

Muriel Mole, Hyundai Pony owner and driving school instructor from Ottawa, Ontario.

"I really like it. I can pop in that car on a frosty morning and it'll start, no problem. It's a very dependable car."

you're not worrying about your tires because they're good tires. Michelin. The top name. You don't need to worry about changing your tires in the spring and fall.

Lorna Anderson, Hyundai Pony owner from Richmond, British Columbia.

People who own the Hyundai Pony have many kind words to say. See for yourself why this practical, economical car has so many admirers. Take a test drive. Soon.
