

Management training

Dear Jim:
 In response to the needs of the Whitchurch-Stouffville Chamber of Commerce, Seneca College is offering "The ABC's of Selling" at the Stouffville District High School beginning October 3, 1985.
 "The ABC's of Selling" is part of the Ontario Management Development Program.
 The Ontario Management Development Program involves part-time courses designed to help you meet your career goals by providing effective management training.
 Designed for owners, managers, supervisors and entrepreneurs, this program is coordinated by the Ministry of Colleges and industry professionals and some courses, approved for the program, are published by the Federal Business Development Bank.

 Courses are designed to be highly practical using the case study method. Seminar leaders bring to the class extensive management experience that is blended effectively with course material for later reference.
 Also, in cooperation with the Federal Business Development Bank, Seneca College is offering "Learn the Language of Finance - How to Understand Financial Statements" Monday, October 7, 1985 at 7:00 p.m. at the Whitchurch-Stouffville

Public Library. Eileen Sherwood, seminar leader for the Federal Business Development Bank is pleased to carry out her association's mandate to expand into the smaller communities surrounding Toronto. Please note the enclosed information outlining the specifics of this course.
 Further information is available at the Seneca College, Markham Information Centre, 8525 McCowan Road, Unit 105, Markham or by calling 491-5050 ext. 4200.
 Thank you for your help and cooperation in making this information available to the population of Stouffville.
 Sincerely,
 Gayle Atkinson, Part-time Coordinator,
 Seneca College.

Artist's work thrills Gallery guests

The work of Newmarket artist Gary Low thrilled guests attending his opening at Whitchurch-Stouffville's Latham Gallery, Sunday afternoon. This painting entitled "Golden Eagle" was admired by many. Prices range from $1,500 to $4,800. The exhibit, to remain in the Gallery for three weeks, is sponsored by McNeil Pharmaceutical (Canada) Limited of Stouffville.
