She had a ball

Dear Editor:

It is with a little twinge of sadness that I write this letter.

Another ball season is over for us and our daughter. Many thanks to the executive and all those involved in the Whitechurch Stouffville Minor Softball Association. They have provided fun, relaxation and another summer learning experience for Mary-Lynn. She loves the sport and so do we.

Mary-Lynn has been a very fortunate girl to have played ball under super coaches like Bill McKnight, John Campbell, Brian Norton, Larry Penny, Bruce Stapley and this year, George McGowan. Each of these men taught her the rules and shared with her the joys of winning, but more importantly, impressed upon her the values of being a good sport, a supportive teammate and a responsible player. Our thanks to all of you.

As our daughter closed her eyes this night, her last words were: "I hope I get Mr. McGowan next year." Need I say more.

Sincerely,
Jean Thomas,
Rupert Avenue,
Stouffville
