Close call at church

By Elsie Boland
GOODWOOD
There was a close call at Goodwood United Church on Saturday when a gravel truck hopped the curb and drove onto the front lawn. A sign was taken out, but fortunately the runaway vehicle missed hitting the corner of the church. The driver involved in the 3 p.m. mishap was not identified.

Bingo will be played tonight (Sept. 18) at 7:30 p.m. in the Goodwood Community Centre. And a euchre night is scheduled at the centre on Sept. 25 beginning at 8 p.m.

Members of the Couples Club enjoyed a successful roast beef dinner on Saturday night.

Choir practice begins Thursday night at Goodwood United Church. All interested singers are invited to attend.

There was a shower at the Williamson's residence on Sunday in honor of their son, Eric, who'll be getting soon.

Third twins arrive

Twin calves are not exactly a rarity, but it's certainly uncommon for three consecutive sets to be born at the same farm. Harry Woodland of Conc. 4, Uxbridge Township, has had three of his cows give birth to identical twins this year. On Sunday, Mr Woodland attended to his stable's latest additions under the watchful eye of the cow, a Greyed Charolais. She gave birth Sept. 11, just weeks after the other two pairs arrived. The story is more exceptional given the fact the animal was struck by a lightning bolt during a storm back in April. It was knocked unconscious but later made a complete recovery. —Chris Shanahan
