Urge year-round recreation

Dear Editor:
 There would appear to be considerable negative comment concerning our new Recreation Centre.
 I think it's a nice building. However, from a practical sense, it's really nothing more than what we already had—an arena. My concern is that it be USED: all year round, not shut down six months of the year as was the case with the old structure. If on-going programs are arranged, then the $2.3 million is money well spent.
 Sincerely,
 Geoff Knight,
 Albert Street,
 Stouffville

Mayorality candidate musters workers from across Town

Whitchurch-Stouffville mayorality candidate Fran Sainsbury commenced her campaign with a meeting fellow workers at her home, Thursday night, including co-campaign and fund-raising chairman Neil Andrews (left), and Doug Chant. Mrs Sainsbury estimates her bid for the mayorality will cost close to $10,000.
