

Markham Ford holds raffle for hospital

Closing events at the Markham Fair will be highlighted with a raffle to raise money for the Markham Stouffville hospital. Markham Ford has donated an eight-horsepower lawn tractor to be raffled off on the last night of the Fair and the proceeds will go directly to the hospital fund. Doug Peacock of Markham Ford said the raffle should draw the interest of many residents and points out that it is for a good cause.

Prices for the tickets are $2 each or six for $10 and will be sold at the Fair. For more information on ticket sales call Doug Peacock at 294-8333.

Fall fashion at Markham Place Mall

A fall fashion show was held last week at the Markham Place Mall to display the new fashion now available in the stores. At left, customers admire a model wearing a cabbage rose print skirt and a sleeveless vest over a blouse. At right, this model displays a two-tone dress with belt and cowl neck. Sjoerd Witteveen

 That 76.2% of adults in Markham/Stouffville received at least one of the last four issues of the Economist or Tribune, compared to 40.3% who read yesterday's Star. (Source: Kubas & Associates study, Spring 1985. Details on request.)

You can get what you want

How to get what you want will be the topic of speaker Lynne Gordon at the next meeting of the First Wednesday Network-Markham.

Ms. Gordon is a consumer advocate who will offer suggestions on how to communicate what you want to the right people.

The meeting will be held Wednesday, Oct. 2 at the Cullen Country Barns on Steeles Ave. at 7:30 a.m.

Tickets are available at Jayne Wilde Fashions, Varley Village Plaza in Unionville, Flowers Fantasia in Markham or the Royal Bank at Woodbine Ave. and Esna Park Dr.

For further information call Danielle Volpe or Barbara McNulty at 477-6243.

Women's group plans seminar

The York Region Women's Committee has planned a full-day seminar for women during its 7th Annual Fall Break. "Get Involved in Your Future," the concept of this year's seminar, will feature workshops and nine seminar leaders.

Karen Fraser, founder of Women Like Me and author of The Women's Business and Networking Directory, has been invited as the keynote speaker for the day.

Other planned topics include how to market creative skills, effective communication, dealing with aging, relatives, building self-confidence and starting an investment club.

The Fall Break is on Saturday, Nov. 16 from 8:45 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Aurora Highlands Golf and Country Club. For ticket information contact The York Region Women's Committee, R.R. 2, 86 St. John's Sideroad East, Aurora, Ont. L4G 3G8.
