You're invited to take a step back in time

Two community groups in Unionville invite all to take a step back in time at a special evening on Friday, Oct. 25.

The meeting is being presented in two parts by the Unionville Historical Society and Unionville Community Fellowship.

An historical update on how Unionville became the bustling community it is will be presented by the historical society and guest speaker Jerald MacKenzie will speak on how God has assisted him through his personal and professional life.

Mr. MacKenzie is a Toronto lawyer and resident of Thornhill. A special refreshment package has been put together to reflect the theme for the evening.

The meeting will be held at Crosby Arena in Unionville at 7:45 p.m. Tickets are available at inseparables in the Bridle Trail Shopping Centre. For further information call 477-5091 or 477-3650.
