Busy time planned for theatre

Several local groups will take part in the opening week celebrations of the new Markham Theatre for Performing Arts.

As well as the John Gray production of Don Messer's Jubilee, which opens Tuesday and the gala opening concert by Moe Kauffman and Friends, Markham Little Theatre will present a one performance replay of its award-winning play Waiting for the Parade on Saturday, Oct. 26 at 8 p.m.

On Friday, Oct. 25, the York Symphony Orchestra will present its first concert of the season. As well, the Markham Concert Band will perform tomorrow at 3 p.m.

Don Messer's Jubilee continues daily until Nov. 2.

The Danny Grossman Dance Company will perform on Nov. 4 and 5, followed by the Hilltop Musical Theatre Co. presenting Trial By Jury from Nov. 6 to 10.

On Wednesday, Nov. 13, Pinocchio will be performed by the Touring Players Theatre at 10 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

On Saturday, Nov. 16, the Elgin Trio of Thornhill will perform under the auspices of Performing Arts York Region.

Markham Little Theatre's fall production of On Golden Pond opens Wednesday, Nov. 20 and runs until Saturday, Nov. 23. All performances are at 8 p.m.

On Thursday, Nov. 28, the Touring Players Theatre will return for performances at 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

The Unionville and South Markham Rotary Club is sponsoring three performances by well-known Canadian ballerina Karen Kain. The shows will be Dec. 6 to 8. Tickets are $15 to 25.

The Markham Theatre is located at 171 Town Centre Blvd. (west side of Warden Ave. north of Hwy. 7). For information on these events call 479-0201.
