An important day for Whitney

Sunday, Nov. 10 was a red letter day for Whitney Curtis, daughter of Paul and Sherri Curtis, Rupert Avenue, Stouffville. It was her first birthday, an occasion Mom and Dad considered important enough for a party. Mr and Mrs Curtis moved to Stouffville from Markham 1 1/2 years ago and love it. Their love for Whitney, however, defies description.

AROUND TOWN

VETERINARIAN WED

Dr. Brian Laing of O'Connor Veterinarian Services, was married recently to Christine Dahms in Richmond Hill United Church. The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather who travelled here from Germany for the occasion. The bride, a fashion designer, designed and made all the bridal gowns. Her attendants came from Austria, British Columbia, Quebec and Ontario. Dr. Peter Weidlich of Stouffville, an associate of the groom, was an usher. Mrs Weidlich, Dr. and Mrs Denis O'Connor and Dr. and Mrs Terence O'Connor also attended the ceremony. Following a honeymoon in the Dominican Republic, Dr. and Mrs Laing will reside in Thornhill.

LOVELY CEREMONY

A lovely wedding was conducted by Rev. Herb Gale in St. James Presbyterian Church, Stouffville, Oct. 2 when Lia Sainsbury, daughter of Dennis and Fran Sainsbury, R.R. 2, Stouffville, was married to Mitchell Hurst in a candlelight ceremony. Michele Sainsbury, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. Gary Taylor was best man. The reception followed at the bride's parents' home. The happy couple are now residing in the Guildwood community of Scarborough.

FROM MEXICO CITY

Jean O'Neill, Winlane Drive, Stouffville, recently returned from Mexico City where she attended the wedding of Catalina Obeid and Juan Antonio Lens-Guerrero, Oct. 19. Mr and Mrs Anton Obeid became first-time parents of a son, Joseph, Oct. 21 and Oct. 23, she was a guest at the 30th wedding anniversary of Mr and Mrs Josef Obeid. While in Mexico City, Jean saw some of the devastation caused by the recent earthquake. Clean-up operations are continuing and life is slowly returning to normal, Jean says. Many streets are still closed to traffic but vacationers are still welcome, says Jean.

CHRIST CHURCH BAZAAR

Christ Church Anglican will hold its annual Christmas Bazaar this Saturday, (Nov. 16), from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. The location is Sunset Boulevard, east of Orchard Park School. Featured will be home-baking, crafts, sewing and items for children. Refreshments will be served.

CHRISTMAS TREES

The Stouffville Lions Club will again be selling Christmas trees in the A & P Plaza, beginning Sat., Nov. 30. The committee chairman is Lion Bill Hodges.

BETHESDA W.I.

The Bethesda Women's Institute will meet Wed., Nov. 20 at 1 p.m., in the home of Mrs Bruce Empringham, Park Drive North, Stouffville. Mavis McCullum will present a slide presentation entitled "Journey Into Yesterday". The trip, by horseback, carriage, bicycle, antique cars, canoe and on foot, was a bi-centennial project. Visitors are welcome. For additional information call 640-1680.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

The Stouffville Horticultural Society will hold a pot-luck supper and meeting, Mon., Nov. 18 at 6 p.m., in the lower auditorium of Stouffville United Church. Pat Scythes will show pictures taken during a trip to the Holy Land. Prize money for the year will be presented.

CHURCH ANNIVERSARY

The congregation of Gormley Missionary Church will celebrate their anniversary with special services this Sunday, Nov. 17 at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Rev. Glenn Gibson, Director of Evangelism for the Missionary Church will be the guest speaker with special music by soloist DeVerne Mullen.

KINSMEN BINGO

The Kinsmen Club of Stouffville hold bingos every second Wednesday in the Legion Hall, beginning at 7 p.m. The next bingo night is Nov. 20.
