Prized gift from one artist to another

Artist Robert Bateman has long been admired by Stouffville artist Jim Bessey, Booth Drive. On Thursday, a draw was held at the Town Museum for a Robert Bateman signed print. The winner was none other than Mr Bessey. It will be added to other beautiful paintings in his home, most by Mr Bessey himself. Proceeds from the draw will be used to restore the Brown family house now relocated at the Museum site.

For less fortunate

Dear Jim:

In late 1982, a small group of concerned people in Town decided to organize the collection of food, clothing and money for distribution to needy families in Whitchurch-Stouffville and Toronto.

The organization eventually became known as the Ecumenical Outreach Committee.

Since this beginning, about 1,000 boxes of food, 900 boxes of clothing, bedding and toys have been donated by citizens in Town. Also, through the Deacon Al Fund, close to $12,000 has been used to provide food vouchers, fresh produce and other financial assistance to many families and agencies.

The Ecumenical Outreach Committee wishes to thank the citizens of Whitchurch-Stouffville, and many others, who have made all this possible. A special thank you to the following who have given of their time in various ways:

- Colleen Bacon, Marian Boadway, Karen Bowman, Carol Brodie, Kathleen Doerner, Marj Duxbury, Roger and Kathleen Glazin, Bob Heenan, Beulah King, Sherry Knight, Bill and Joyce Nailer, Denis and Ursula O'Connor, Frank and Diane Passafiume, Harry and Barb Schell, Bud and Beryl Sanderson and Lorraine Steckley.

I.G.A. will be filled to overflowing. (At the A & P, please enquire from the cashiers about the location of the basket. Of necessity, during alterations, this has been changed many times.)

Clean, wearable men's clothing may be left at Christ Church (Anglican), Sunset Boulevard, next to Orchard Park School, Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. to 12 noon. Cash donations may be made to the Deacon Al Fund, Box 339, Stouffville. Receipts for income tax will be mailed upon request.

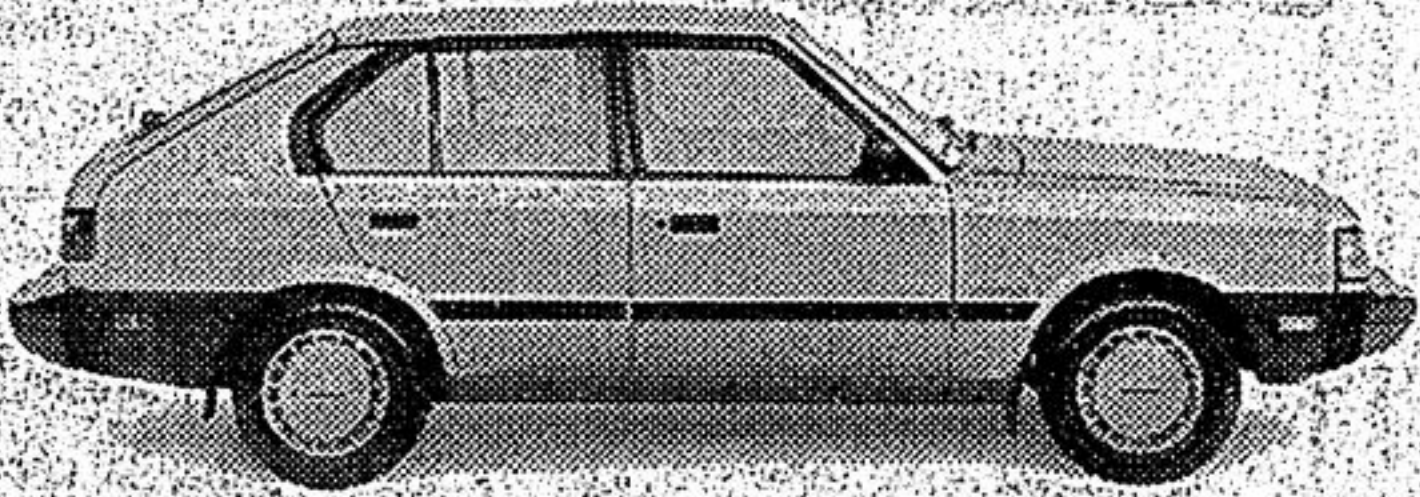

It is only with the support of sympathetic and caring people that this program can continue to bring help to the needy.

The need for help is still urgent, and we hope in the weeks to come the containers at the A & P and the

Sincerely,
The Ecumenical Outreach Committee
