

4-H leaders honored at Achievement Day

The 4-H Clubs of Durham West and Durham South held their final Achievement Day of 1985 at Trinity United Church, Uxbridge, Saturday. Three leaders were presented with long-service diplomas (left to right): Joan Wilson, Mt. Zion (five years); Corinne Cross, Mt. Betheda-Reach (twenty years); and Evelyn Jones, Mt. Zion (five years). A special presentation was made to John Kingstone, R.R. 4, Port Perry.

Four 4-H members received awards, Saturday, for completing six, twelve and eighteen projects. The presentations were made to (left to right) Barbara Jamieson, Mt. Zion; Marita Kersten, Epsom; Janice Evans, Betheda-Reach and Maria Breznikar, Epsom. Achievement Day for Durham South and Durham West was held at Trinity United Church, Uxbridge. —Jim Thomas

Honored

CLAREMONT — Lloyd Linton, R.R. 3, Claremont, a bus driver 19 years, will be honored by the staff and students of Claremont Public School, Dec. 17.

Mr. Linton, recently retired from this position, will be a guest at the school's Christmas Concert.

Two programs are planned, one for the public at 7:30 p.m., and one for the students at 9:15 a.m. Staff members Yvonne Poyser and Dianne Greenwood are co-ordinating the event.

Student participation will involve pupils from Kindergarten, Grades 1, 3, 5 and 7.

The Spring Concert, April 23, will include children from Grades 2, 4, 6 and 8.
