Name That Building

Name this building and you could win $25 in the Weekender's Name That Building contest. Bring entries to the Economist and Sun offices, 9 Heritage Rd., Markham, or the Tribune offices, 54 Main St. W., Stouffville, no later than 9:30 a.m. on Thursday, Dec. 19. Last week's winner was Merle Wideman of Stouffville, who correctly identified the Claremont General Store.

Centennial Baptist

Church expansion

Centennial Baptist Church has growing pains and is expanding its facilities as a result.

An auditorium which will eventually seat 700 people will be built at a cost of $500,000.

Grace Developments was contracted to do a study of the facility and design a suitable addition in April, 1985. The church approved the developer's proposal in October.

A tentative schedule has construction beginning in June 1986, with $125,000 in the building fund and completion of the project by March 1987. Pastor Harvey Peters hopes to have $250,000 raised by the time the building is dedicated.

The church is asking the congregation for pledges of support for the construction.
