Christmas program delights

By DOROTHY REESOR
The Markham Historical Society celebrated the Christmas season at its monthly meeting last week.
The program was planned by Dorothy Murdock and Barbara

Reid. They both participated in readings about Christmas symbols and traditions, with help from Fern Keith and Norman Reid.
Also to delight the crowd in the museum church were Evelyn Whittamore to lead the carol singing and The Patterson Family Singers — Pat, Brian, Marg and Wayne, accompanied by Betty — in lovely harmonized singing. Recitations were well-performed by Jonas Panell. Christmas cake and tarts were provided by the ladies of the society.

Pastor to retire
At the official board meeting held on Dec. 9, a pastoral relations committee was chosen to find a new minister for Brown's Corners to take over when Rev. Croft retires.

Serving on the committee are Diane Hewitt, Barbara Reid, Keith Hood, Brian Carr, Isobel Hood and Harvey Brown, with representatives from Presbytery — Rev. David Reeve and John Hallworth.
