

From North Pole to Goodwood

The staff and students of Goodwood Public School presented an enjoyable Christmas Concert, Dec. 18, before a standing room-only audience of appreciative parents and grandparents. In the play entitled 'Santa's Workshop', lead roles were taken by Kelly Coney, (right), and Julie Taylor.

New Year's Eve

Service of music

By EVELYN MILSTED GORMLEY — A special New Year's Eve Gospel Music Service will be held Dec. 31 in Heise Hill Church from 9 p.m. to midnight. The program will include The Wright Singers, The Torchmen and soloist John Hisey.

Mr and Mrs E. J. Wideman and family of Uxbridge; Mr and Mrs Neale Sider and family of Wellandport; Mr and Mrs Lawrence Wideman and family of Cornwall and Mary Cober of Gormley.

A New Year's Fellowship will be held Dec. 31 at 9:15 p.m. in the Missionary Church. A film will be shown followed by refreshments. The gathering will conclude with a candlelight communion.

John and Stephen Campey enjoyed Christmas in England with their parents, Mr and Mrs Geoffrey Campey.

The many friends of Bruce Steckley will be pleased to know he's improving following surgery in Toronto General Hospital.

Mrs Minnie Hawkins attended the service for her cousin, Ella Pike, held from the Ogden Funeral Home, Agincourt, Dec. 19.

Karen Sparks left Dec. 26 to spend ten days with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr and Mrs Roger Sparks and baby, Calgary. Martha Wideman entertained

Corn club champion

DURHAM REGION — With a yield of 160.4 bushels per acre, Bill Robinson of Brooklin is the 1985 Durham West 150 Bushel Corn Club winner.

Lloyd Harbron of Ashburn was second, with a yield of 158.3, followed by Bob Hunter of Brooklin, third, with a yield of 153.9.

Mr. Robinson was the recipient of the Mac Allbright Trophy, a wrist watch from Durham West, Rama and Mara Soil and Crop Improvement Association, and a unit of Pioneer seed corn from Robert Hunter Farms Ltd. at the club's awards night and banquet held Nov. 28 at Prince Albert United Church.

Thirty competitors, using the variety and cultural practice of their choice, produced an average per-acre yield of 129.7 bushels of shelled corn on a 3-acre plot, at 15.5 per cent moisture.

Guest speakers at the ceremony included Ministry of Natural Resources spokesman Scott Jones. He gave an illustrated presentation of a new program to evaluate Ontario's wetlands.

Assistance appreciated

Dear Mr. Thomas: We wish to take this opportunity to sincerely thank you for your interview time.

We appreciated your valuable insight into the operation of a weekly newspaper. Following the interview, we both commented on how busy a life a weekly newspaper editor leads. Realizing this your generous hour of time is all the more appreciated.

We were both pleased at how well the interview went and with the wealth of information provided.

We thank you for your kindness, generosity and insight. Sincerely, Jane Wagg, Deidre Campbell, Journalism students, Ryerson Polytechnical Institute
