

Atom Clippers take another prisoner

Stouffville atom defenceman Jason Scott far right keeps a Pickering Village player off balance behind the Stouffville net during Jan. 3 home action. The local Clippers won the game 4-1. The Stouffville squad is two for two in tournament play. It won the Beamsville journey crown in late November, and the Smithville "B" division title last weekend. —Kelly Connelly

Midget squad defeats Wailers

The Stouffville Credit Union Midgets defeated the Mississauga Wailers 5-3 during Sunday night all-star action in Stouffville.

Lorraine McDowell scored a pair of goals, with singles going to Laurie Taylor, Shawn Morrison and Jenni Atilia. Stouffville goalie Dorothy Tscheng prevented a Wailer comeback with some good stops during scrimmages in the slot.

Taylor made sensational rushes end-to-end which threatened to bolster the Stouffville spread. However, when she passed the puck to the slot, her wingers failed to put it home.

BANTAMS BOMBED
Stouffville's bantam rep squad was shut out 10-0 by a quick skating Orangeville club on Sunday.

Although a few local bantams showed brief spurts of talent, the team needs much work in the play-making and skating departments—and more practices, agreed Stouffville coach Cam Stewart.

TOUGH WORKOUT
Stouffville's intermediate rep goalie, Bonnie Hollingsworth, stood her ground when the midget boys' squad shared some ice time with the girls later the same night.

Hollingsworth stopped a barrage of slapshots off the sticks of the male players, including a few dangerously high bullets.
